These dates were announced this week by Frank E. Donnelly following his appointment as general chairman of the campaign by the Very Rev. Msgr. Gerald C. Lambert, director of the CYA.

Moll To Preside At CSMC Session At Notre Dame U.

Several Rochesterians will be in attendance at the 13th national convention of the Catholic Students Mission Crusade, scheduled Thursday through Sunday, Aug. 26-29, at the University of Notre Dame, South Bend, Ind.

Representatives of Nazareth College, St. Andrew's Seminary, Nazareth Academy, Mercy High School and Aquinas Institute are scheduled to attend the convolve.

On the executive staff for the sessions is Martin Q. Moll, public relations director of the Catholic Courier Journal, who has been active in the CSMC for several years. Moll also is president of the National Committee of Veteran Members, an auxiliary of CSMC comprising those who have graduated from schools. Moll will preside at the Veteran meeting, which will be held jointly with the CSMC session.

This will be the first national convention since the one held in Rochester in 1941. Subsequent biennial sessions were postponed because of war conditions.

General objectives of the convolve, which will be attended by some 3,500 delegates from all parts of the nation, are the Christianization of America and the promotion of vocational service to the Catholic Church. These objectives have been approved by Archbishop John T. McNicholas of Cincinnati, national CSMC president.

An inspirational high point of the program will be reached Saturday night at a general convocation to be addressed by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen of the Catholic University of America. Several Archbishops and Bishops and scores of priests, including about one hundred missionary priests, are included in the program. More than 500 nuns are expected.
