Scot Benedictines Get Ancient Priory
 London (NC) — Monastic life will be resumed at Plascarden Priory, Elgin, Morayshire, a centre of Catholic life in North Scotland in pre-Reformation times, on September 8, Feast of the Birthday of Our Lady.

The old priory and surrounding property have been presented to the Benedictines by Lord Cromartie-Stuart, leading Scots Catholic, and monks from Prinknash Abbey in England's rural Gloucestershire are taking charge.

Possession will be marked with Pontifical High Mass to be offered by Bishop John Mateson of Aberdeen on the site of the old central altar.
