Teen Talks Main Street Courtesy

There are a few on every Main Street. No, they're not volunteer firemen but they have taken it upon themselves to set a new pace in Rochester...

Norma DePrez crowded sidewalks and shopping districts as swooners are to bow-tied crooners.

While sidewalk pace-setters are hazardous, the poky, wandering pedestrian is annoying. Then, there is always the set who insist upon choosing a busy door way for that social tete a tete.

WALKING THREE or four abreast should be reserved for parades. Perhaps you have heard this song before but whether it's a great day for singing or you've just found the lost chord spare Main Street the misery of hearing the blatant strains of your musical musings.

IF YOU ARE standing next to a friend, conversation will be consequent. Always remember that boisterousness is in poor taste but broadcasting opinions to an uninterested world is unbearable.

Save your vocal strength for the home team's touchdowns and whether you spot your best friend or long lost Uncle Fred across the street, suppress that desire to call our names. Whistles can be used effectively to summon dogs but their use should be limited only to that.

Oh, oh there is your bus and there are only five people and this, seconds separating you from a ride home. Here is where courtesy counts. Instead of tramping over those unsuspecting pedestrians and employing elbow spearing tactics a few

Near East Missions Francis Cardinal Spellman, President Msgr. Thomas J. McMahon, National Secretary Rev. Harry M. O'Connor Rev. Andrew H. Rogosh

Love's Wounds St. Francis bore the stigmata, the wounds of Our Lord, in his own holy body, and the Church celebrates the Feast on September 17. Can you give six hundred dollars to adopt a missionary in the Seminary of St. Francis at Ghiza, Egypt? Even a dollar monthly to the CHRYSOSTOMS, our Student Support Club, helps much.

HOMETOWN OF JESUS NOW FAMINE RIDDEN Do you know that 20,000 refugees have swelled the population of Nazareth, hometown of Jesus, and today that peaceful sanctuary has 40,000 starving, famine ridden, unfortunate people. What a spectacle!

MORE BURDENS With all our work for Palestine, we must still send food packages to those refugee priests in Germany. They have fled from the Russians and we must help them. Ten dollars provides one package. God will bless you.

FATIMA'S FORTRESS Write for our illustrated prayer folder on the Lady of Fatima, which we send to all who help the little hospital run for the poor by the American Medical Mission Sisters at Mary Girl, Inda.

SHANGHAI GESTURE We have one lone mission in Shanghai, China, the only refuge for Russian Catholic children, Irish Columban Sisters have the girls, and the Jesuit Fathers the boys. When we visited Shanghai recently, Father Wilcock begged us to raise five hundred dollars for them. Here is a noble, almost forgotten work.

HOLY THINGS We still need sets of altar linens, costing ten dollars, requested by dear old Mother Guigne for the chapels of Lebanon. Always do we welcome special chalices and ciboria, each costing fifty dollars, for needy missionaries.

PIOU'S FAMILY Pious indeed, is that family enrolled in our Association and rewarded with the prayers and Masses of grateful missionaries. Five dollars entails all for a year and a hundred dollars perpetually.

SPLENDOR GONE Time was when old Constantinople was full of religious splendor, but Bishop Denis Varouchas, its Catholic bishop, has seen none of it. From him comes an appeal for five hundred dollars to purchase necessary vestments. A set costs thirty dollars, and even your dollar monthly as a member of the Monks Guild, our Altar Sodality, will help.

THINK OF IT. If every reader of our appeals were to give a dollar to the Near East missions, we could support all our work for two years! Please do help us.

ROSES STREWN How many roses have been strewn by the Little Flower among us? Give your little rose for her Shrine Chapel, which we are building in Lebanon for the conversion of Russia? We send you "The Unpetalled Rose," her picture folder.

THREE DOLLARS This is the cost of the little uniform for an orphan child in Egypt, and we must have many before school starts. Don't forget that dollar a month to the BASTILIANS, our School Club. We have so much to do.
