An Open Letter Wherein Bond Answers a Big Question for a Lot of Men!

Dear Mr. Phipps:

You ask "what's going to happen to Fall suit prices? Will they skyrocket along with milk and butter and beefsteak?"

You echo what all America shouts - "it's high time somebody slammed on the brakes". You're right - it is high time! And that's not just lip-service, Mr. Phipps. We at Bond's are doing it!

You've heard how fine worsteds - the kind you like to wear - are up an average of 50 cents a yard. That's a lot of money. You've read plenty about rising labor costs. Well, tailors have to eat the same as coal miners and steel workers.

So what's the answer? You can slice it two ways. Add these increased costs to all your price tags - and let the public pay. Or sit tight, keep prices down, get more business - and let higher volume cut your expenses.

That's "the Bond way", Mr. Phipps! Once again we're holding the price-line. Once again, we expect to rub out a big chunk of our increased costs by serving more men. You've seen it work, right here at Bond's, every time inflation made the headlines. In 1937, when almost every clothier boosted prices and Bond didn't! Ditto, in 1941. And now, in the Fall of 1948, you're getting the most convincing proof of all!

Step into any Bond store, ask for one of our popular Style Manor Suits, and you'll see the same smooth worsteds, the same fine needlework - and the same familiar price tag - 37.75.

Set your sights on our famous Park Lane Quality, and you'll find America's topflight fabrics handsomely tailored in 81 different sizes and models - at one low price you paid last Spring - 45.75.

Decide you want the luxury and fine handdetailing of our Rochester fashioned Executive Group Suits, and we'll show you a grand selection at a price you'll recall with pleasure - 51.75.

Yes, that's swimming against the tide. Somebody must lead. And you, Mr. Phipps, naturally look to Bond - America's largest outfitter to men - to show the way. We will not disappoint you!
