Laywomen Pick New Head Of Retreat League

Webster Groves, Mo. — (NC) — The seventh biennial congress of the National Laywomen's Retreat League, which drew some 500 delegates and friends to Webster College, here, elected Mrs. Mary Williams of the Dominican Retreat House, Elkins Park, Pa., as president for a two-year term.

THE CONGRESS, which was sponsored by the Cenacle Retreat League of Louis and Bishop Leo J. Stock, Auxiliary of Salt Lake, who emphasized that the retreat movement is one of the most important both to the Church and to individuals.

Archbishop Ritter offered Solemn Mass in Holy Redeemer Church for the delegates and after the service announced that His Holiness Pope Pius XII has imparted, through His Excellency Archbishop Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, Apostolic Delegate to the United States, his special Apostolic Blessing to the officers and members of the League.

BISHOP STECK told the delegates that the closed retreat should enhance the performance of a woman's three-fold duty, to her God, her Church and her country. He emphasized that in her duty to her country, it is as serious to cast an intelligent ballot in an election as it is to receive the Sacraments.

With the approval of His Eminence Dennis Cardinal Dougherty, Archbishop of Philadelphia, the Rev. Paul Lambert, pastor of Philomena's Church, Lansdowne, Pa., was selected as moderator for the league. Other officers elected are: Miss Helena Colbert, Albemarle, Calif., vice president; Miss Mary Stengels, New York, secretary; Mrs. Joseph E. Scherer, Kansas City, Mo., treasurer; and Miss Della Lynden, Chicago, executive secretary.

Among resolutions adopted was one which recommended that the group consider taking steps to affiliate with the National Council of Catholic Women.

Holy Rosary Post Winner In CWV Softball Playoffs

In as thrilling a finish as has been witnessed all season — Holy Rosary defeated Sacred Heart Post of the Catholic War Veterans 4 to 3 in the final game of the CWV softball playoffs.

A pinch double by Jack Potter proved to be the big blow of the game in a big seventh inning for the Holy Rosary lads. For six innings Santucci and Smith were locked in a tight pitching duel each allowing only 3 hits. In the last half of the 7th a sensational catch by "Jeff" Wilkins saved the game for Holy Rosary. In the first of the final inning a series of squeeze bunts and Potter's sharp double scored three runs enough to win for Frank McKenna's Sacred Heart team.

Conner, Smith and Bill Graham were the big guns. Holy Rosary won the right to meet Sacred Heart in the final straight games. Sacred Heart earlier ousted Precious Blood Post-league champion during the regular season.

Miss Leach, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Leach of Eastern Avenue, is a graduate of Nazareth College and Syracuse University.

U. S. Jesuit Assigned To China News Post

Shanghai — (NC) — The Rev. Charles J. McCarthy, S.J., of San Francisco, has been assigned to the Catholic Central Bureau here as assistant to the Rev. Patrick O'Connor, St. Columban priest in charge of the recently founded Hua Ming news service, established to supply Catholic news to the secular press as well as Catholic.

Father McCarthy will also assist in the Chinese bureau of N.C.W.C. News Service, located here in conjunction with Hua Ming.

Since early this year Father McCarthy served as Pelting correspondent for N.C.W.C. News Service and Hua Ming, gaining distinction by his careful and thorough reporting of the communist persecution of religion in north China.

Chinese Clergy Go To Rome for Study

Shanghai — (NC) — Twelve Chinese priests and 10 seminarians leave for Rome this month, the priests to enroll in the new College of St. Peter for post-graduate studies, chiefly in canon law, and the students to study in the Propaganda College.

The 12 priests are from north, south, east and west China, representing 10 dioceses and one religious community, the Disciples of Our Lord, founded by Archbishop Celso Constantini when he was Apostolic Delegate to China. Five of the priests are from north-China dioceses stricken by Red attacks.

Red-Razed Crucifix Restored in China

Lanchow, Kansu. — (NC) — Where 12 years ago the Communists wrecked a mission station and sawed away a large crucifix over the gate, the cross has once more been raised and the mission expanded in remote Yungchang, northwest of here. Yungchang formerly did not have a resident priest. Now it has one, and a group of Chinese Sisters of the Holy Family, who have opened a dispensary with a circulating medical unit attached. The mission is in the archdiocese of Lanchow, staffed by Divine Word Fathers.

Pontiff Grets Boy Scout Hikers

Vatican City — (NC) — His Holiness Pope Pius XII received 1,000 Rover Scouts most of whom had walked, in a driving rain, from Rome to the Papal summer residence at Castelgandolfo a distance of 15 miles.

The Scouts left Rome at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. At one o'clock in the morning they attended Mass in the catacombs of San Domitilla Basilica, on the Via Ardeatina, where they received Holy Communion. They arrived in Castelgandolfo at 6:30 and were received by the Holy Father at 9:30 o'clock in the morning.

Red-Razed Crucifix Restored in China

New Scottish Convent London — (NC) — The Dominican Sisters of the Perpetual Rosary, a contemplative congregation with houses in Europe and the United States, are opening their first convent in Britain in the Dumbreck district of Glasgow.
