Show Draws Melbourne—(NC)—More than One Year Ban

Wilmington, Del. -(NC)-- A one year boycott of a neighbor. hood theater has been pledred by the Catholics of Wilmington following the theater owner's reing. Contestants were invited to by the National Legion of

The film which precipitated the ban was "Mom and Dad," a sexeducation drama.

Since the theater involved is situated in an overwhelmingly Catholic neighborhood, the management was asked to cancel the showing of the objectionable film. When they persisted, announcement was made of the voluntary ban on Catholic patronage of the theater.

Priests in several churches in the area of the movie-house are making week-by-week announcements of the fact and have arranged with another theater manager to give children an opportunity to see approved pictures at special matinees.

IN A LETTER to local pastors. the Rev. J. Francis Tucker. O.S.F.S., Wilmington diocesan director of the Legion of Dec ency, declared that not only had the owner refused to cancel a showing of the picture, after he was aware of objections to it Catholic Film but had distributed throughout
