Juvenile Films Said To Aid School, Morals

Vienna, Austria — (NC) — Criticisms of the motion picture industry by Austrian Catholic Youth Organizations served to focus attention on the recommendations of Catholic speakers at the International Film Festival, held at Salzburg, Austria.

The criticism of the Catholic organizations is based on Austrian Juvenile Court findings, which show that immoral motion pictures are in a large measure responsible for juvenile delinquencies.

One Catholic delegate Dr. Frederick Schneider, director of the Institute for Pedagogical Science, disagreed with the view of many delegates who would bar children from all motion picture theaters as is the practice in Switzerland. Basing his statement on the findings of the institute he directs, Dr. Schneider said that good films are just as important a factor in the educational system of the young as good books and good magazines.

HE ADVOCATED establishing special theaters for young people, as has been done in England and France, opening of film clubs for children and forming libraries of children's films.

As a beginning he recommended that at least one day a week be set aside by theaters for showing juvenile films and urged that these films aim at the moral welfare of children.

Collegians Poll Radio Comedy

Collegeville, Ind. — (Special) — Catholic college students will launch their second annual "radio acceptance poll" of national radio comedy programs on Oct. 17 when 20,000 collegians of all denominations begin a 24 week study of programs and personalities to rate them for "good taste" and "acceptability".

Each participating college unit will choose a weekly poll committee of ten students to listen to specified programs. The students will rate each show and performer for good or bad taste. Later the national results will be tabulated to call the attention of the public radio networks, advertisers and radio stars to the public acceptability of these programs.

DISCLAIMING any attempt at censorship, RAP (the Radio Acceptance Poll) lists five ratings of good taste which the students will apply to all comedy programs: Highly acceptable, Acceptable, Barely acceptable, Unacceptable and Objectionable.

RAP was founded by the Press Commission of the National Federation of Catholic College Students with headquarters at St. Joseph's College, Collegeville, Ind.

Theater Cancels Protested Movie

South River, N. J. — (RNS) — Showing of the film "Mom and Dad" which deals with sex hygiene and allied subjects was cancelled by the local theatre upon the request of the Rev. Joseph J. Connolly, pastor of Corpus Christi Roman Catholic church. The movie was condemned by the Legion of Decency in June 1947.

A statement issued by Father Connolly in behalf of the community's priests declared:

"SEX INSTRUCTION does not come within the function of a motion picture theatre. On the contrary, to assume this grave responsibility would be a perversion of the principal function of the theatre.

"The motion picture theatre," he said, "is not a clinic, nor is it a doctor's consultation room or classroom. It is not the office of a priest, minister or rabbi, nor is it the pulpit of a church."

Italians Make Religious Films

Rome (RNS) — With the assistance of Vatican authorities, production of a film based on the life of St. Francis of Assisi, founder of the 700-year-old Franciscan Order, is scheduled to begin here in December.

Cost of the production will run from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000 depending on whether the movie is made in black-and-white or technicolor. About $600,000 has already been spent on research, selection of background sites, and other details.

The title role will be undertaken by an Italian actor. A French actress is expected to be chosen for the part of St. Clare, co-foundress with St. Francis of the Poor Clares, famed Catholic sisterhood.

MEANWHILE, production has been completed here of the million-dollar movie, "Fabiola," based on the novel of the same name by Nicholas Cardinal Wiseman. The film was made by an Italian company with the collaboration of officials from the Vatican and the University of Rome.

Fabiola deals with the Roman matron of the fourth century who renounced the world to devote her immense wealth to the needs of the sick and poor. First showings will be in Scandinavia, Belgium, and France, around the middle of December.

Mission Story Told In New Radio Series

Dramatic stories of the foreign mission work of the Church told by radio transcription on four stations in the diocese will bring the annual mission appeal of the Propagation of the Faith to thousands of area listeners each Sunday of October.

Special recordings broadcast from WHAM, Rochester, WMBO, Auburn, WWHG, Hornell, WENY, Elmira, on the four Sundays of October will give first-hand accounts of the amazing missionary frontiersmen from Mongolia, the Canadian Northwest and the Philippines.

On the final program a cast of professional radio players will dramatize the "Story of Father" Peter Chang", the martyrdom of a Chinese priest in January, 1948.

WHAM will carry the series at 12:45 p.m. beginning this Sunday. WMBO has scheduled the transcriptions for 1 p.m. each Sunday; WWHG, Hornell will play them at 6:45 p.m. Sundays, and WENY, Elmira has assigned a 1:15 p.m. position.

MOB PSYCHOLOGY sets the scene for the radio drama "By Their Fruits" to be presented on The Greatest Story Every Told Sunday, at 6:30 p.m. on Rochester station WARC.

A dramatic situation is built up when an angry crowd pursues a ragged boy following an ancient caravan route in Biblical times. The gripping climax is based upon the parable: "A good man out of a good treasure bringeth forth good things; and an evil man out of an evil treasure bringeth forth evil things" . . . (Matt. 12:35).

The Greatest Story Ever Told is written and directed by Henry Denker under the supervision of Fulton Oursler, its originator. Background music is provided by an orchestra and choir under direction of William Stoess.

THE SACRED HEART Program, heard daily except Saturday on Rochester's WRNY (680), has been called the world's largest cooperative. If the radio time, which is donated by sponsors, had to be bought, it would cost the Apostleship of Prayer $800,000 a year.

The quarter-hour program is broadcast in Rochester on Sunday at 8:45 a.m. and Monday through Friday at 12:15 p.m. The coming week's program of talks follows: Sunday — Thomas Moore: Chancellor of the Realm; Monday—Samuel DeChamplain; Tuesday — The Parable of the Fish; Wednesday — The Parable of the Ten; Thursday — Pray For us Sinners; Friday — Now.

A FOG of doubt and despair provides the atmosphere for The Hour of St. Francis' satirical drama "Bridge of Dreams," which is scheduled for broadcast Sunday at 6:30 p.m. on WSAY (1380), Rochester.

Action in the story revolves around a trio of secular educators who try to test the theories of twenty-five years of research on human problems when confronted with an attempted suicide. In spite of their remonstrances, the man wants to die by leaping from the campus bridge. An unorthodox policeman carries the theme to a weird and disturbing climax.

SPEAKER on the Hour of Faith program during October will be the Rev. Edward T. Waitrak, S.J., associate editor of Jesuit Missions magazine, who will be heard each Sunday at 11:30 a.m. on WARC (950), Rochester. First topic of his theme "The Wisdom of the Spirit", to be heard Oct. 3, will be "The Ravager of Peace."
