Officers Slated

A series of Forums for officers of all parish Holy Name Societies in four Diocesan Deaneries is scheduled for Friday nights from Oct. 8 through Oct.

The Forums, which alm thorough discussion of mutual organizational problems, a r e cheduled to be held in Geneva, Auburn, Corning and Elmira. Their order has not yet been fully confirmed.

More than 30 parish HN societies in the Rochester (Monroe County) Deanery were represented at four Forums held during the last fortnight. Particular satisfaction at the interest shown in them was expressed by the Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, spiritual director of the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union, and Lewis Schur, president.

Postponed from last week because of a conflict in dates, a meeting of the Diocesan Union executive committee will be held at 8:15 p.m. Monday, Oct. 4, at the Holy Name Central Office, 35 Sclo St., Schur announced.
