Aquinas Set for Chicago's Weber High After Crushing Xavier 47-0 in Opener

Weber High School of Chicago will need weight, speed, brains, prayer and luck when they face the heavily-favored Aquinas Institute football horde at the Red Wing Stadium this Sunday afternoon.

That is the prophecy of Rochester grid fans following the Little Irish victory over Xavier High School of New York City, 47-0, in the season opener last week before 17,105 spectators.

Boasting speed, deadly blocking, and a long benchfull of skilled reserve strength, Coach Harry Wright's aggressive forward walls and fleetfooted backfields make Aquinas a free-scoring threat in any competition.

This week's Chicago visitors come from a school of 650 students conducted by the Fathers of the Resurrection. Rated the best of Chicago's Catholic high school teams with 31 victories, 5 losses and 4 ties in the last four seasons, Weber has already won two out of three games this year.

Xavier High players swarm over Al Catalano, Aquinas full-back, as he finishes a first-down plunge in the opening 47-0 Irish victory over the New York City school at the Red Wing Stadium last Sunday. Aquinas ball-carriers gained 407 yards by ground-rushing; the visitors made only 86.

In 1944 and 1946 Weber captured the Catholic League title in the Windy City but lost to the public high school champs in citywide games before 75,000 spectators in Chicago's huge Soldier's Field.

Nicknamed the "Red Hards," the Weber team is coached by Al McGurr, Notre Dame '34. Having only two first string men over six feet, the Chicago team averages only 173 lbs per man in the line against the Aquinas average of 199 lbs, and has an average backfield weight of only 161 lbs.

Living up to all advance notices, Aquinas promised a season of crack football as they moved down the Xavier cadets. The Irish had possession of the ball eleven times but pushed 407 yards on the ground and 101 yards by merely two forward passes to score seven touchdowns in sustained drives.

While fierce Aquinas tackling limited the visitors to 5 first downs and a puny 56 yards by rushing, the Maroon gridders piled up 17. Halftime and final whistles spared Xavier the rush of two other certain Aquinas touchdowns.

Individual "player of the week" by a vote of the coaching staff was Charley Hilbert, 150 lb left halfback who scored two touchdowns on 50-yard and 20-yard runs.

Quarterbacks Charley Maloy and Ray Hasenauer directed the Wright strategy brilliantly aided in the backfield by Joe Barbera, Johnny Della Villa, Jimmy Ging and Al Catalano.

Outstanding in the ponderous line play and blocking were Nowak, Di Gasperi, Trubitts, Aulenbacher and Rigney. In all Coach Wright used 45 players, reaching down into 4th and 5th stringers to slow up the scoring spree.

Czechs Outlaw Church Rites For Marriage

Prague — (NC) — Obligatory civil marriages, outlawing all ceremonies performed by priests, and an easing of the divorce laws were announced by Dr. Alexej Cmejka, minister of Justice, to a press conference here.

"The Commissions for the revisions of penal, civil, family and marriage rights have completed their work," the minister said. "Hereafter civil marriage will be obligatory, and marriages performed by priests will not be recognized as valid. The wife will be permitted either to take her husband's name or keep her own."

"ALIMONY in divorces will be payable either by the husband or wife, in case one of the couple is unable to work for a living. In some instances alimony will be payable by the state."

"As to the divorces themselves, state's lawyers have concluded that it is unnecessary to preserve marriages where both partners have lost internal unity. The divorces will be granted when the partners have made proper arrangements for the maintenance of children, payment of alimony, etc."

"Finally, the status of children is changed. The father's power is no longer recognized, but will be replaced by the parents power."

Workers Demand Home and Garden

San Juan, Argentina — (NC) — A publicity campaign demanding a separate home with garden for every family has been launched by the Young Christian Workers movement here. The campaign is aimed at influencing civic authorities still trying to solve the critical housing shortage in this city of 30,000 where an earthquake in 1944 destroyed 90 per cent of the buildings.

The Young Christian Workers have circulated appeals requesting that one-family homes with sufficient rooms to accommodate the members of each family be provided. They also urge that every house have a sizable yard where the worker can cultivate his own garden and where the children can play.

Hold Marian Congress San Gabriel, Cal. (NC) — Convening at the Old San Gabriel Mission here, 35 Clarellans from various parts of the country held the community's Cord-Marian Congress in the United States. Delegates formulated a program to encourage the growth of the devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary in the United States.

New Red Rules Against Slovak Catholics Issued

Bratislava, Slovakia — (NC) — New impediments to the freedom of Catholic worship in Slovakia are adding to hardships already being endured.

The abbot of the Praemonstratensian Monastery, in Jasov, was notified without advance warning that a high school of agriculture would be opened in his house, preempting space ordinarily used for religious purposes. The monastery, dating from 1170, houses the training school for theologians and an 80,000-volume library, one of the largest in Slovakia.

FOR MANY YEARS the monastery has set aside part of its spire as a rest home, recently housing 160 children of working men. It also furnished fire timber to the poor in the neighborhood and employed a number of local laborers. The edict turning part of the monastery over to a state school is resented, because more suitable localities for such institutions are available.

Slovakian pilgrims, too, are being harassed by restrictions. Officials announced that "for reasons of economy" special rail and bus facilities would not be available for pilgrimages to the various Marian centers. In spite of this, more than 40,000 traveled to Markianka by regular train and afoot, to attend the feast day of the Name of Our Lady. On this occasion upwards of 21,000 received Holy Communion.

Organizers of the annual pilgrimage to the famed Marian center at Czestochowa, Poland, announced that arrangements had to be cancelled because of "technical difficulties," presumably lack of transport.

Finally, the new print allocation of Katorzke, Noviny, weekly with a former circulation of 200,000, has been so drastically cut that the publisher, Mgr. Ambrose Lazik, administrator apostolic of Trnava, has been forced to reduce the size of the paper from eight pages to six and cut his print order. Readers have been urged to pass along their copies to others during the curtailment.

Negro Teaching Nuns Arrive in Detroit

Detroit — (NC) — The first Negro Catholic nuns to teach in Michigan have arrived at Our Lady of Victory mission from the mother-house of the Oblates of Providence at Baltimore, Md. The four sisters will each catechize, instruct women and visit homes. An elementary school will be established later.
