Homell Sodality Elects Officers

Homell — Miss Carolyn Pollinger was elected prefect of the Sodality of St. Ignatius Loyola Church at its first fall meeting in Confraternity Center, Wednesday of last week.

Other officers are: Carl Weyand, vice prefect; Thomas Weyand, secretary and Mary Ann Cosgrove, treasurer.

The Rev. William Tobin, spiritual advisor, spoke on aims and purpose of the Sodality, which he said are foremost spiritual — the sanctification of one's self, and one's neighbor, and the defense of the Church.

The Sodality voted to attend the triduum in honor of Our Lady of the Rosary, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in St. Ignatius Loyola Church.

National Leaders Set For Sodality Congress

Rev. J. Roger Lyons, S.J., and Rev. Richard Rooney, S.J., with Miss Dorothy Willmann of the Central Sodality Office in St. Louis will conduct conferences at the Diocesan Congress of Mary, scheduled Nov. 11 and 12 at Aquinas Institute, Rochester.

Delegates from Rochester, Elmira, Auburn, Corning, Geneva and Ithaca areas will head for Rochester to take part in the two-day congress. Secondary schools and parish sodalities are making a combined effort to draft a program appropriate for all. Provision will be made for working men and women sodalists in night sessions.

Rev. Roy B. Morphy is acting as general chairman of the congress and the Rev. J. Joseph O'Connell is secretary. His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, honorary chairman, has endorsed the Congress.

Miss Bernice Terhaar, vice chairman of the Congress, has placed each of the local high schools in charge of a committee. Rev. Robert Flood, C.S.B., of Aquinas will make general arrangements assisted by a committee led by Joseph Roberts.

OFFICIAL PROGRAM of events is in the hands of Virginia McCoy of St. Agnes High School. Rev. Charles Bauer of Holy Family parish will program the entertainment, aided by John Wolf of St. Boniface.

The Hospitality committee of Nazareth Academy is completing arrangements for housing out of town delegates under direction of Eileen Conheady. Assisting Father O'Connell will be Marcella Wille, also of Nazareth.

Catholic Schools Cut Tuition in War Area

Kalifeng—(NC) — After a summer marked by battle, destruction and migration, only six of Kalifeng's 20 private schools will reopen this fall, and two of the six are Catholic. (Kalifeng is capital of the north-central province of Honan.)

At least 10 private schools were destroyed or damaged in the fighting for Kalifeng early in the summer. It is estimated that 5,000 students left the city since June. Many of those who have stayed are destitute, as a result of war havoc, and can no longer pay school tuition.

To meet the emergency needs, Catholic schools have cut their tuition fees to the minimum and are taking many pupils without any charge.
