HNS Meeting Set To Form School Basketball League

Official formation of the Holy Namt Parochial School Basketball League is scheduled for 8 p. m. Monday, Oct. 18, at the Holy Name Central Office, 35 Scio St.

Any additional parishes wishing to have their boys in the league are urged to send representatives to the meeting Tuesday. It will be necessary, Farren pointed out, to know the exaxct number of participating teams in order to set up a schedule, arrange playing dates, hire referees, and so on.

PARISHES WITHOUT playing courts are advised to send a representative to the meeting, as it may be possible to obtain the use of nearby courts. Limited use of courts at Aquinas Institute and Edgerton Park already has been obtained.

Present plans call for setting up East and West (of the river) Divisions of the league. First league games will be scheduled about Thanksgiving, with the season to close about early March with playoff games between the two Divisions to decide the league championship.

League officials have proposed the possibility of an inter-city tournament, with the Rochester champs engaging picked parochial school teams representing Elmira, Corning, Auburn and Geneva.
