Nocturnal Men To Mark Feast At St. Francis

Rochester Nocturnal Adoration Society will hold its annual Sunday evening Holy Hour on the Feast of Christ the King, Sunday, Oct. 31 at 8:15 p. m. On the invitation of the Rev. Joseph A. Cirincione, pastor, the hour will be kept at St. Francis of Assisi Church, Whitney and Orange Streets according to Joseph W. Benn, executive secretary.

Mr. Benn states that the Society, now in its 20th year, has long followed the practice of conducting one early evening Hour of Adoration in one of the various parishes of the city.

The year-round, all-night vigils before the Most Blessed Sacrament are held regularly in St. Patrick's parish where the first nocturnal vigil was held in Lady Chapel of the former St. Patrick's Cathedral, Sept. 28, 1929.

COMMENTING ON this year's special observance of the Feast of Christ the King, Secretary Benn said: "I think it is particularly appropriate for the Nocturnal Adoration Society to visit St. Francis of Assisi Church on this occasion since there has been but recently established there a Peoples Eucharistic League.

"Members of both societies devote themselves to adoration of Christ in the Most Blessed Sacrament at night, when He is most neglected or ignored, both would make reparation for the coldness and indifference toward Christ, or His complete rejection by so

AUBURN SODALITY LEADERS

New Officers Installed By St. Mary's Sodality

Auburn — At the first Fall meeting of St. Mary's Junior Sodality on Tuesday evening, October 5, in Lyceum Hall, the new officers of the Sodality for 1948-1949 were formally installed in an impressive ceremony.

With the Rev. John P. Norris, moderator of the Sodality, acting as the installing officer, each of the retiring officers handed over the symbol of her office to the newly-elected officers with an appropriate instruction on the duties and obligations of the position.

JOAN CRAWFORD, retiring prefect, handed the gavel over to the new prefect, Mary Jane Conboy. The retiring viceprefect, Helen Sweeney, handed over a book of Sodality rules, symbol of her office, to Gertrude Zampetti, new viceprefect. Ann Vintler, retiring treasurer, gave the account book and check book to Nancy Gansulus. Anne Kinsella, retiring secretary, handed over the

Friedel, Tarby Hit 633 To Top Auburn HNS Loop

Auburn — John Terry's wise observation of "Look for high scores on Holy Name Communion Sunday" was true last Sunday in the St. Aloysius' Holy Name Bowling League as Paul Friedel and Steve Tarby, last year's number one bowler, rolled identical totals of 633 to lead the league, followed by John Terry with 611 and Frank Stapleton with 610.

Friedel came through with games of 225, 172 and 236 to gain his 633 total while Steve Tarby had 190, 220 and 223 for his. John Terry the Terrier, set a new individual high single when he rolled 248 in his first game and followed it with 166 and 197 for his 611 total, the second high of the day. Francis Stapleton had the third high total of 610 on games of 193, 223 and 194.

Gonzaga profited by Paul Friedel's 633, Jim Kennedy's 529 and John Bodnar's 526 by rolling 2621 for high three game total and by setting a new high single game of 954 without a handicap. This new high single was gained on Bodnar's 222, Bud Graney's 187, Charlie Rice's 157, Kenneth's 163 and Paul Friedel's 225. With this power house bowling, Captain Jim Kennedy's team defeated Caritas three points to one.

Frank Iarla was the high man for Caritas with 524.

STEVE TARBY'S 633 total proved in vain for his Loyola team in their fight for second place against Santa Clara who took four points to pass last year's Champs and take over second place. Francis Stapleton's 610 combined with Bill Dunn's 526 and Eddie Russell's 512 were too much for Loyola. Joe Stapleton, Santa Clara's morale builder, said, "We won this for 'Champ' Jones, who is sick in the hospital."

John Terry's 611 combined with Jack Friedel's 632 supplied the one two punch which knocked out a three to one victory for Notre Dame over the Holy Cross team. Captain Bob Holmes of the "Fighting Irish" says "Now that Terry the Terrier has started watch our SMOKE."

Georgetown didn't release any 600 bowlers but had four men in the 500 class which helped them take an easy victory of four

Catholic Press Mission Hailed

Kingston, Ont. — (NC) — "At no time has the apostolate of the Catholic press and its high mission in the diffusion of divine truth been of greater importance than in these days when the enemies of God have become so numerous and so insidious in the propagation of the doctrines of darkness."

This observation was part of a message in which His Holiness Pope Pius XII extended to the Canadian Register his best wishes for an increasing readership. The Register, published here, is the official weekly organ of the Catholic Church Extension Society of Canada and serves a number of archdioceses in the English-speaking part of the country.
