India Jesuits May Keep Oriental Rite

Ernakulam, India (NC) — The Holy See has granted permission to some 20 Indian priests, who left the Syrian Rite when they joined the Society of Jesus, to resume their Oriental Rite and offer the Sacrifice of the Mass according to it. The Vatican culling also states that all others of the Syrian Rite who join the Society in India may retain their rite. Formerly all were obliged to join the Latin Rite. There are now over 20 Syrians in India and about 12 Brothers in the Society of Jesus here who were born in the Oriental Rite. In all there are 1,334 Jesuits in India, 849 of whom are priests.

Seeking to keep the young people busy...

Seeking to keep the young people busy, they sent 100 boys to camp that year and were encouraged by results. Police, teachers, business men and citizens generally were so enthusiastic over the setup that permanent organization was obvious. Father Getell and Malone secured a meeting place in one of the village halls and saw to it that the program was attractive.
