Elmira Catholic Highlights

By KATHERINE CARSTATER

Sodality

The first noon-day meeting of the Elmira Catholic High School's sodality was held on Wednesday with a great number present due to the fact that the probation sodalists were on hand, this being their first opportunity to witness the organization in action. The main purpose of the meeting was to present the principles of parliamentary procedure and to demonstrate its use in sodality meeting. The publicity committee presented a brief quiz which was conducted by Ralph Reed who acted as quizmaster.

The recitation of the rosary sponsored by the sodality is being held every Friday after school in the church for sodalists and the students who wish to participate.

Yearbook

The literary board appears to be quite smug about the arrangement of the book and outsiders are led to suspect that there are many pleasant surprises awaiting them in June. Seniors are having their class pictures taken this week, and various groups for different days have been designated by the literary staff. There are many cameras in action this week attempting to fill the quota for informal snapshots, although the several rainy days have proved somewhat discouraging

Hayride

Speaking of nasty weather, it seems the courageous juniors outdid the weather last Monday. A hayride had been arranged by them for the previous week, but the planned for day resulted in a dreary aspect. However they were not to be discouraged and by the time the party was rounded up the weather had cleared. The chaperons for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Francis O'Connor. It seems the Sophomores are now planning a similar event, we are watching to see their luck in such activities.
