Bishop Blesses Youth Center In East Rochester

Extremely valuable, His Excellency, Bishop Kearney declared the new $100,000 East Rochester community center as a place for supervised recreation for youth, at the dedication dinner, Tuesday.

In the presence of some 500 villagers, Bishop Kearney blessed the structure at 6 p. m.

The Bishop at the dinner stressed the need for such a project as the center to keep young people occupied during leisure time and thus help them to avoid trouble.

Honored at the dinner was the Rev. Bernard J. Gafell, pastor of St. Jerome's Church, East Rochester under whose guidance funds for the center were raised. Daniel C. Malone who cooperated in the project spoke briefly.

Friends will contribute $100,000 worth of equipment for the center which is operated as the East Rochester Branch of Columbus Youth Association.

Comprising a gymnasium, library, kitchen, locker and shower and game rooms, the center will be open to youngsters after school and in the evenings from 7 to 10 p. m. Adults will use it one night a week and church societies will meet there.

Canandaigua R. S. Nazareth College Thespians To Present 'Noah' Fantasy

Canandaigua - The new organist of St. Mary's Church, Francis V. Taylor, formerly of England, was guest speaker at the third annual Communion Breakfast of St. Mary's Rosary Society, held Oct. 10 at Hotel Canandaigua.

One hundred and four members heard Mr. Taylor describe life in England from where he arrived three months ago with Mrs. Taylor.

Rationing of provisions and clothing in England and the shortages borne by the English were described by Mr. Taylor. Some foods, he said, are so scarce they are not even obtainable with ration stamps.

The organist said he was deeply impressed by the lakes and hills around Canandaigua and by the city itself where he said he and Mrs. Taylor plan to make their home.

CO-CHAIRMAN for the breakfast were Mrs. John Dawson and Miss Alice R. Farrell, assisted by Mrs. Charles Spengler and Miss Mary R. McKenna.

One hundred members heard the Rev. Donald J. Murphy of Aquinas Institute faculty at the meeting Oct. 12.

A former Army chaplain, Father Murphy stressed the need for clothing all over Europe and said that in Cologne over 700 babies, born in the last year, had been wrapped in newspaper for lack of clothing.

His contacts with hospitals and priests are direct and anyone who cares to send clothing overseas through Father Murphy may leave packages at St. Mary's church. It was announced.

THE SOCIETY voted $25 to the Community Chest drive. Mrs. Raymond Rodney was named delegate to the conference of National Council of Catholic Women at the Rochester Chamber of Commerce Oct. 27, with Mrs. P. Howard Meath as alternate. Nov. 18 was set as the date for the annual card party in the church hall. Mrs. Edwin M. Levy was named general chairman; Miss Margaret Smith, ticket chairman. Mrs. Raymond Miller, card tables; Mrs. Wendell Toomey, prizes; Mrs. Charles Connelly, decorations; Mrs. Jack Rice, publicity; and Mrs. Leo Curtin, refreshments, assisted by the bands of Mrs. Martin Dugan, Mrs. Sesto Vecchi and Mrs. John Gentner.

Announcement was made of a silver tea at Granger Homestead Oct. 27 for the benefit of Wood Library. Bands of Mrs. George Koehler and Mrs. Plus Channave served refreshments.
