BLACKFRIAR PLAYER AT 71

Father of nine children, including three in religion, Charles F. Dolan, 71, of Jersey City, N. J., scores his big moment on the stage of the Blackfriars' Theatre in New York, playing the part of Tom Moore in the production of W.A.S. Douglas' new play, "The Minstrel Boy." A family council was necessary before Mr. Dolan consented to go on the stage. Now "Dad" is as happy as any starlet. (NC Photos).

6 Scholarships To Be Presented

McCurdy's Little Symphony Orchestra will return for its sixth broadcast season next Tuesday (Nov. 9) with Gordon Gifford, noted baritone of stage and radio, as featured soloist, As in previous seasons, the orchestra will broadcast over WHAM every Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

Highlight of next week's opening concert will be presentation by Gübert J. C. McCurdy of six McCurdy-supported scholarships in the preparatory department of the Eastman School of Music, Dr. Howard Hanson will accept the scholarships on behalf of the school and make first public announcement of the winners.

The McCurdy orchestra is composed of 32 Rochester musicians under the direction of Charles Siverson. For two successive years it has been cited by the National Retail Dry Goods Association as first award winner in the annual contest for the best use of radio by a retail store. Gifford, star of next week's program, first appeared in Rochester in 1944 as soloist with the Rochester Clylo Orchestra. He has broadcast more than 1000 sole concerts over the major networks on such programs as the Prudential Family Hour, the Ford Sunday evening hour, and the NBC Symphony.

Tickets for the Little Symphony concerts at Rochester Radie City may be obtained free in the music department of Mc-Curdy & Co, or at the Rochester Radio City reception desk.
