St. John Fisher Club Plans Anniversary Dinner Meeting

A Seventh Anniversary celebration will feature the monthly dinner meeting of St. John Fisher Club of Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral in the parish hall, Thursday, Nov. 18.
The Rev. Arthur E. Raligan, director of Family and Child Placing Division, Rochester Catholic Charities will speak. Traditionally, parents of members will be guests.
Arrangements are being made under the direction of the club's adviser, the Rev. Edward J. McAniff.
A program of entertainment will be presented under the direction of Miss Bertha Curlice and George Glassow. Miss Joyce Sullivan is chairman of the decorations. Reception and name tags are in charge of Thomas Tydings.
The club was organized in November, 1941. From the small group which first met seven years ago, the organization has grown to one of the largest parish clubs in the city, according to officers.
Such established activities as the monthly dinner meetings, a monthly Communion Breakfast, a hiking club, several bridge groups, and a dramatic group have kept members busy. Latest activity is the organization of a chorus of mixed voices with the Rev. William T. Nolan as director.
