Thanksgiving

Again comes the great national holiday of Thanksgiving. President Truman calls on his people to mark the day by a consideration of all that God has done for our country...

Our Thanksgiving Day should find us going to Mass in the morning, there to unite our voices with those of our fellow-citizens...

What a wholesome reaction has been shown by the people of England to the joyous news of the birth of a new Prince of the Realm!

Pope and President

All America welcomes with our President the greetings and good wishes sent him by Pope Pius XII on the occasion of his election to the office of President of the United States.

Last Sunday After Pentecost

This last Sunday of the Church year reminds us that time is passing, that the day of the end of the world is ever approaching nearer.

Do You Remember?

25 Years Ago - Nov. 18, 1923

As a reward for his devotion to fellow-countrymen and Catholics in general in Moscow during Bolshevik terror, Monsignor Vidal was presented insignia of Legion of Honor by M. Cambon, Charge d'Affaires in the French Embassy at the Vatican.

10 Years Ago - Nov. 17, 1938

Urging "an spirit of confidence," His Excellency Bishop Kearney called on the faithful in his diocese to cooperate in getting people back to work.

5 Years Ago - Nov. 18, 1943

On direction of His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, four Solemn Pontifical Masses and diocesan-wide Eucharistic Triduum services were scheduled to mark the 75th Anniversary of Rochester diocese.

Fr. Higgins Says: NCWC Official Answers Tribune Story on Holy Land Conditions

Both Stand to Lose

If the writer were asked to select the most important book of 1948 in the field of labor economics, he would nominate Dr. George Taylor's recently published study entitled, "Government Regulation of Industrial Relations" (Prentice-Hall).

Without resorting to the use of a single emotional adjective, Dr. Taylor patiently demonstrates on the basis of a lifetime of intensive study and practical experience in the field of industrial relations...

TO PROVE his neutrality and his non-partisan interest in the future of collective bargaining, Dr. Taylor is at pains to criticize the American labor movement whenever it deserves it...

REJECTION of the labor-management conference idea carries with it, he warns, "a disavowal of the basic collective bargaining principle that industrial relations conflicts are reconcilable around the conference table."

In conclusion, perhaps it would be in order to recommend to President Truman and his very capable Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin, that another National Labor-Management Conference will be convened as soon as possible...

Calendar of Saints

SUNDAY, November 21 Presentation of the Blessed Virgin. This feast commemorates the presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the Temple at Jerusalem at the age of three by her parents St. Joachim and St. Anne. MONDAY, November 22 - St. Cecilia, Virgin-Martyr. She lived in the second century, was of noble birth, and converted to Christianity her betrothed husband Valerian and his brother Tiburtius, both of whom gave their lives for their Faith. TUESDAY, November 23 - St. Clement I of Rome, Pope-Martyr. A first century convert, he was the third successor as Pope to St. Peter, who had consecrated him a Bishop. His famous epistle to the Corinthians restored order in the Corinthian Church. WEDNESDAY, November 24 - St. John of the Cross, Confessor-Doctor. He was born near Avila, Spain, in 1542 and was ordained a priest in the Carmelite Order in 1567. Influenced by St. Teresa of Avila, he founded the Discalced Carmelites. He underwent many trials, was persecuted and imprisoned. He died in 1605. THURSDAY, November 25 - St. Catherine of Alexandria, Virgin-Martyr. She was a wealthy and cultured young woman, who defied the tyrant Maximinus Daza and after much persecution, was sent into exile. Upon her return vain attempts were made by her persecutor to have her submit to heathenism. She was put to death in 310 by means of a spiked wheel.

Convert Girl Becomes Nun

Bristow, Va. (NC) - Two years ago, when the Richmond Diocesan Missionary Fathers were conducting a mission at Elk Garden, Va., a young woman called at the motor chapel to say that she would like to become a Catholic. Last week the young woman, Cora Rowardruble, took the habit of a Benedictine Sister at a ceremony witnessed by her parents and four brothers and sisters, all of whom joined the Church with her.
