'Christ the King' Movie Slated At Immaculate Hall

A full-length moving picture on the life of Christ will be shown in Immaculate Conception auditorium Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, November 28, 29 and 30.

The movie "Christ the King" will be seen Sunday afternoon at 2:15 and Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings at 8:15. Admission price is 65 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. "Christ the King" has been hailed as "the religious motion picture of our age." This will be its first showing in Rochester. Narrators of the film is in English. The National Legion of Decency has expressed the view that "the picture will arouse in the minds of those who see it true religious devotion and greater love of our Savior." Another testimonial from the "Theatrical Procession Union of Holy Name Societies" states: "We probably never will see such a wonderful contribution to the cause of worldwide peace again." A representative of Visual Education Incorporated of Texas wrote that "This is the film we have been waiting for. It fills a long looked for need. May it be the privilege of all who are interested in Christianity to see this masterpiece."
