World Government Must Come-Adler

international wars there is no peace."

Terming the UN a "debating society for diplomats," the speaker said "the thing to get rid of first are the diplomats." They cannot be assured of "keeping the conversation going," he declared, because of conflicting national interests.

"We must perfect some kind of machinery such as exists in the nation's courts," he maintained, "to enable talking to continue and shooting to cease. Diplomats will always fail because war lies at the end of their best arguments as a last alternative."

All signs point to the decline of 19th Century capitalism and of communism, Adler stated. The necessary middle ground will be reached and East and West brought together, he said, "when we become more socialistic than we are and the Russians become more capitalistic than they are."

Adler was one of several world-wide figures who started in 1946 to work out a World Constitution. The resulting document has just been published, he said. It divides the world into nine regions and designates what powers are to be given the world government and what to remain with the separate states. It deals with such issues, he added, as representation, balance of powers, world commerce, the monetary system, distribution of armed forces, and taxation.

Flag Given To St. Helen School

Presentation of an American Flag to St. Helen's School in Gates by Clara Barton Tent, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War took place on Nov. 10.

The flag, it was noted, will fly from a flag pole on the school grounds dedicated to Private First Class Harold Schott, Jr., only boy from St. Helen's Parish to make the supreme sacrifice in World War II.

Mrs. Marjory Mass, Tent patriotic instructor made the presentation and the flag was accepted by the Rev. Louis J. Hohman, assistant pastor, who thanked the group for their gift.

Ceremony was opened with prayer by the Rev. J. Beecher Sullivan, pastor of St. Helen's. The daughters were welcomed by Mother M. Herbert, O.S.F., who presented Mrs. Geraldine Gugel, president of the Tent.

Mrs. Carrie Groves, Past Department President of the Daughters spoke on the group's origin and work and brought a message from the sole surviving Civil War Veteran, 107-year-old James A. Hard, who "urged the boys and girls to love and respect their country's flag and honor it by growing up to be fine American citizens."
