Supper Club, Sports Night, Mapped By Auburn Knights

Auburn — Plans are completed for two outstanding events on the December calendar of Auburn Council, Knights of Columbus. They are the First Friday Supper Club meeting scheduled Friday, Dec. 3, and grand listed Thursday evening, Dec. 9.

Fund for Blind, Testimonial Set By Geneva K. C.

Geneva — Plans for a testimonial dinner and arrangements for setting up a fund for the blind were discussed at the regular meeting of Geneva Council, Knights of Columbus Nov. 22, at the K. of C. home. One hundred dollars have been secured so far in the recently organized fund.

The testimonial dinner, Dec. 8, will honor Grand Knight Louis L. McGulgan, and also mark the fact that the local council led the state in membership and held second place in the country in 1947. John F. Gleason is chairman of arrangements.

COMING HERE for the dinner will be William C. Burke, of Utica, state deputy and supreme director. It will be the second time in the history of the council that a supreme director has visited the council.

Mr. Burke will pay special tribute to the council and will make a presentation in behalf of the Supreme Council. District deputy Victor DeWenover of Newark will also be a guest at the dinner.

During the meeting plans were reviewed for the new fund for the blind which has just been organized by the council. The fund will be built up by contributions and benefits, it was stated.

John Legott, chairman of the basketball team of the council, which is entered in the city league announced that new uniforms had just been purchased for the men.

Bowling League Scores

CATHOLIC LEAGUE
High individual game in the Catholic Bowling League was Valvano's, 234 for Immaculate Conception No. 1 team last Friday.

Corpus Christi with a 9th second game won all three games from St. Boniface in the team play. Holy Redeemer A. A. No. 4 rolled a 923 in each of the first two games against Immaculate No. 2 but the latter scored a 901 to win the third match.

St. John's Greece No. 1 team rolled a 989 to win the first match, won the second but lost the third to St. Charles No. 2 Immaculate Conception No. 1 leggers rolled three better than St. George's five with the last game of 906.

St. John No. 2 team made it three decisions over the St. Charles No. 1 team. Holy Redeemer A. A. No. 2 had a big night and won the first and third game, latter with 978 from St. Ambrose. In the second game, St. Ambrose's 902 won for their team.

Besides Valvano's score, other two hundred games were: Waldock, 212 and Gallagher, 207 for Immaculate No. 1; Deitz, 200 and Hohman, 203 for Corpus Christi; Deltman, St. Boniface, 212; Jaroski, 202; Driescher, 200 and Bernard, 204 for Immaculate No. 2; Placious, 206 and Maloy, 209 for HRA A No. 1; Stephany, 225; Buckert, 203 for St. John's Greece No. 1; Herman, 208; Greig, 201; three game total: Wirth, 203 and Waltz, 225 for St. George's.

Father Kleintjes Talks To League

Auburn — Rev. John Kleintjes, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, Canandaigua was guest speaker at the November meeting of the Catholic Action League of St. Alphonsus Church, held in the South Street House of C. at Auburn, Catholic Daughters of America.

Father Kleintjes, a graduate of St. Alphonsus parish, spoke on his recent pilgrimage to the Shrine of Fatima in Portugal. Rev. Robert Dobbstein, moderator of the Catholic Action League, spoke briefly.

Mrs. Olyve Garbinsky, president presided at the short business session during which awards were distributed and plans for the holiday season discussed.

Mrs. Paul Williams and Mrs. John Laird were appointed co-chairmen for the December session.

Mrs. Barbara Schreck was chairman for the November meeting and was assisted by the following members: Mrs. William Hulting, Mrs. Barbara Baumick, Miss Jeanne Garbinsky, Mrs. Frank Catmody, Mrs. Robert Schneider and Mrs. Raymond Painter, Jr.

War Halts Priest-Scientist On Research Work in China

Peiping, China — (NC) — Military campaigns in Inner Mongolia have put a temporary stop to the field work of the Rev. Paul Serruys, I.H.M., priest-ethnologist, who spent last summer scanning temple monuments and listening to village troubadours in Suiyuan province.

THE TASK of Father Serruys, a research fellow at Fu Jen, the Catholic University in Peiping, has been to gather folklore and history source material, either as carved on ancient stones or as kept alive in song and story, concerning the little-known past of Suiyuan.

Just north of China's Great Wall, where it borders the northern reaches of the Yellow River, the priest found Chinese inscriptions dating from the 12th century Chia dynasty and many
