

First Television Of 40 Hours Rite

Philadelphia (NC) — Tele-casting of the 40 Hours Devotion took place for the first time here this week. The devotion was televised over Station WPTZ from the Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul, with the Rev. Francis P. McVeigh, curate at the Cathedral, as celebrant of the Solemn Mass. Approximately 2000 persons attended the ceremonies. Msgr. Hubert J. Cartwright, Cathedral rector, in his sermon reviewed the history of the Forty Hours Devotion and pointed out that the devotion first was observed in this city in 1853 in St. Philip Neri's Church.

Irish Improve Films By Catholic Rules

Dublin (NC) — Irish Catholics seem to be taking a greater interest in the development of truly Catholic film movement than American Catholics. Cared Daniel E. Doran, chairman of the Catholic Film and Radio Guild of the U. S., during a visit to Ireland "American Catholics" he said, "are 'holly wood-minded' and too inclined to accept the false standards of that film capital."
