Don't blame you for wanting to sleep there, Pup Dog. An automatic electric bed covering makes the warmest, coziest spot in the house in the middle of a cold winter night. Everybody who tries a new electric blanket, electric comforter or electric sheet feels just the way you do.
And women are pleased to find out from their electric dealer or department store, that the blankets and comforters can be had in a variety of sizes and attractive colors. All three bed covering types are washable and doubly safe because of new thermometric control.
They are healthier too. No over-heated bedrooms. No layers of extra bed coverings. Less chance of catching colds.
