Retiring Staff Honored At Mothers' Yule Party

Auburn — A Christmas party with a tree, gifts for all and Santa Claus marked the December meeting of the Mother's Club of St. Alphonsus Church held Tuesday evening at the Catholic Daughters Home on South St.

Mrs. Carmel Malvasso, president, presided at the business meeting and announced Gertrude Ehresman and Evelyn Matthews, co-chairmen of a combined card party and food sale to be held late in January.

Entertainment was furnished by seven-year-old Dianna Bushallow who presented a toe dance ballet and a Russian folk dance accompanied on the piano by 10 year old David Cappiello, Master Cappiello, who is soon to appear on the Sunday afternoon Bleberman Search for Talent Show, rendered several selections by Chopin and McDowell.

REV. ROBERT Dobbertin gave a short Christmas message, followed by St. Alphonsus Girl Scout Troop 12, who, under the direction of their leaders, Catherine Anton and Carolyn Casper, sang several Christmas carols. They were accompanied by Scout Joan Pfeifer at the piano.

Santa Claus presented gifts of appreciation to Mrs. Malvasso, who has been reelected president and to retiring officers: Secretary Margaret Flynn; Treasurer, Antoinette Morrissey, and Publicity Chairman, Evelyn Rice.

New officers were installed as follows: Anne Ferris, vice president; Betty Kenny, secretary, and Clarida Hart, treasurer. Helen Lamphear was retained as sick fund chairman, and Evelyn Matthews appointed publicity chairman.

Awards were made to Stella Steigerwald and Anne Ferris.

Refreshments were served and group singing of Christmas Carols enjoyed, accompanied by Emily Ipsich at the piano.

Mrs. Mary Pimm, chairman of the Christmas Party, was assisted by Gertrude Ehresman, Eleanor Orendorf and Eunice Boedicker, decorations; Kay Quigley, entertainment; also Anne Ferris, Clarida Hart, Florence Holzhauer, Betty Kenny and Evelyn Matthews.

Athletes Honored At 10th Annual KC Sports Night

Auburn — More than 500 men assembled in the spacious Knights of Columbus Home on Genesee Street for the 10th Annual Sports Night Program, Thursday. Members and guests came early and stayed late and upon arrival were made to feel at home by the committee in charge and the officers.

Special guests for the evening were the 1948 Maroon grid champions and the Golden Gaels of Holy Family, along with their coaches, and to them went words of praise from the various speakers as well as advice to good sportsmanship. Good fellowship and enthusiasm ran rampant as the many features of program began to take form under capable supervision.

Edward D. (Ned) Hanlon, lecturer of Auburn Council and general supervisor for activities introduced Ronald J. Cox, chairman of the 1948 event, who took over as master of ceremonies. Grand Knight Luke J. Bergin welcomed the guests. Coach Bob Dean lauded not only for his own mighty stalwarts, but also Coach Frank Quinn's Golden Gaels of Holy Family School. All assistance and cooperation rendered by his aides, school officials and the general public were commended. He also thanked the Knights for their interest and hospitality.

BOB TURNER, widely known sportscaster for Radio Station WHAM, Rochester, principal speaker, dealt mostly with good sportsmanship on the gridiron and in all athletic endeavour, pointing out to the young footballers that they would go further on a clean block in the gridiron game.

Mr. Turner, who is also a leader in Rochester's campaign to combat juvenile delinquency had some fatherly and sound advice to the athletes and to all concerned.

Films of the top 1948 gridiron clashes throughout the nation and of the last World's Series were enjoyed. Rev. Charles G. Langworthy, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church was projectionist.

Ottawa — (NC) — Archbishop John Hugh MacDonald of Edmonton has been honored by His Holiness Pope Pius XII with appointment as a Roman Count and an Assistant at the Pontifical Throne.

Paul Friedel Hits 641 To Top Auburn HNS Loop

Auburn — Paul Friedel, who earlier in the season led the St. Aloysius Holy Name Bowling League with a 199 average, regained his early season form Sunday, as he banged out games of 223, 223 and 193 for a 641 total. Paul confessed that his sister Helen, who rolled a 233 game last Tuesday night, had been coaching him. It took Fridel's high-powered bowling for Gonzaga to gain an even break with the hard-fighting Canisius team.

Paul Iaria of the Canisius team helped keep matters even by rolling a 519 total.

John Terry in the last two weeks has shown the form that gained for him the nickname of "the Terrier." Terry rolled 237, 180 and 178 for a 595 total — too many ten pin breaks in the last game cost John a good 600. Jack Friedel with 523 and Captain Bob Holmes with 512 joined Terry in leading Notre Dame to a three to one victory over Holy Cross.

Tony Malfa, the captain of the Holy Cross team, led his mates with a 524 total and Paul J. Graney, who always rolls in the 500 class, came through with 504. John Bacon joined his other two team mates in the last game to help the Crusaders to their lone point.

GEORGETOWN had to bowl the high total of the day to beat the never-say-die St. John Fisher team, who rolled the second high total. Bud Wilson of Georgetown continues to be in the groove by banging out the day's high single of 243 and a grand total of 584 to lead his team to a three to one victory over the Cardinals. Vern Pinckney with 530, Andy Paddock with 525 and Captain John Miskell with 509 made it four members of the Georgetown team in the 500 brackets.

Johnny Mallon was the high man for the St. John Fisher team with 506. Paul Bishop in the first game joined Mallon in securing one point for their team.

Lou Tonzi continues to be the spark plug of the Villanova team leading them to a three to one victory over LeMoyne with his 584 total. Fathey Haffey helped out with his 532.

LeMoyne had two men in the 500 class. Joe Pucino with 515 and captain Ralph Casbarro with 509 — both helped their team prevent a white-wash.

Loyola had an easy time taking four points from a fading Santa Clara team. The last game was close not because of Santa Clara's bowling but because Loyola was letting up. Steve Tarby with 572 was the only man in this match who was in form. Steve started slowly but wound up strong with a 212 game.

Joe Stapleton, the Santa Clara morale-builder, couldn't get his team in the right frame of mind even though they were on their "favorite" alleys.

Next Sunday the league will roll for two Christmas turkeys—one for high three games, the other for a secret score. John Terry says he'll be in 600 form for the "Turkey Shoot"; Paul Friedel intends to duplicate his 641; Steve Tarby says he is in shape, Bud Wilson says, "Count me in". But Lou Tonzi isn't saying anything yet. In the last four matches Lou has hit in the 640 class every other time and next Sunday is the other time, that is the 640 time.

state, it will be some period of time before it can be completely furnished. The members are constantly seeking furniture, furnishings and relics of the period.

Adjoining the building are several acres of land, on which the Council plans to lay out a ball diamond and volley ball court, as well as to erect outdoor fireplaces and the grounds will be improved and landscaped to make the proper setting for the building.

The Council is planning to hold dances and dinners in the new home and the first will be a dance Christmas week.

Court of Awards Marks Birthday Of Girl Scouts

Auburn — St. Alphonsus Girl Scout Troop No. 12 held their investiture and court of awards last Friday evening at the Catholic Daughters Home on South St., in conjunction with their first birthday party. Troop No. 12 was a reorganized troop last December.

After explaining to the girls the meaning of their promise and laws, Rev. Robert Dobbertin, Spiritual Advisor, of the troop asked all to renew their Girl Scout Promise and laws. Father Dobbertin invested the following girls in Troop No. 12: Beverly Cavanaugh, Marilyn Depew, Sara Sue Depew, Marilyn McCarthy, Jacqueline Ward, Sheila Ward, Caroline Wenzel.

The following girls were awarded one year membership stars: Margaret Clary, Alice Conkright, Nancy Daley, Mary Flynn, Ann Marie Ganey, Judith Garbinsky, Mary Jo Gleason, Nancy Green, Mary Ellen Hickey, Lynn Hunter, Suzanne Palmeri, Joan Pfiefer.

Proficiency Badges were earned by Margaret Clary, Mary Flynn, Ann Marie Ganey, Judith Garbinsky, Nancy Green, Mary Ellen Hickey, Joan Pfeiffer.

Those receiving their First Aid Badges were: Ann Marie Ganey, Judith Garbinsky, Nancy Green, Mary Ellen Hickey, Joan Pfeiffer. The following received their Cook Badge: Ann Marie Ganey, Judith Garbinsky, Nancy Green, Mary Ellen Hickey, Joan Pfeiffer.

In closing, Father Dobbertin congratulated the girls on their work, and encouraged them to continue on and earn more badges. He spoke to the parents of the scouts, outlining the work of the scout and her duties as a scout.

The girls entertained their parents and friends with piano solos and Christmas stories.

Among the guests present, was Rev. Bernard Kuchmari, assistant to the Rev. Frederick Straub. Yule decorations added to the spirit of Christmas. Refreshments were served by the girl scouts under the supervision of Miss Catherine and Caroline Casper, leaders of the troop.

SMART PUP on a cold night!

Don't blame you for wanting to sleep there, Pup Dog. An automatic electric bed covering makes the warmest, coziest spot in the house in the middle of a cold winter night. Everybody who tries a new electric blanket, electric comforter or electric sheet feels just the way you do.

And women are pleased to find out from their electric dealer or department store, that the blankets and comforters can be had in a variety of sizes and attractive colors. All three bed covering types are washable and doubly safe because of new thermostatic control.

They are healthier too. No over-heated bedrooms. No layers of extra bed coverings. Less chance of catching colds.
