Merry Christmas

TO OUR CUSTOMERS AND FRIENDS—
Will this be the season we all get together and greet our neighbors. For, with string lighting on the trees, with holly and berries and with candle lights coming from the windows down the street, the spirit of Christmas prevails.
For us to wish you a merry Christmas is quite a task, for what we want to say is in our hearts. We have been happy to serve you during the past year, and we hope to serve you well in 1949.
So—so bring to our many friends a different CHRISTMAS GREETING, we are pleased to announce that a CHRISTMAS DAY at ONE O'CLOCK, thru WFRN (680 On The Dial) on pleasure will be to bring you HANDEL'S MESSIAH. We would like to know that you were in the audience. So join us to make your day complete. (11:00 PM - WFRN Christmas Day).

Appeal From Africa Asks Statue Funds

A request for contributions toward the erection of a large statue of "Our Lady of Urundi" in the Belgian Congo, Africa, was received this week by Mrs. Thomas Murphy, Ayrault Road, Fairport.
The appeal is written by the Rev. Jean Delmar of the Congregation of White Fathers at the Mission of Muyaga, Belgian Congo. He points out that the White Fathers came to "this little corner of God's Vineyard" just 50 years ago, and that he is desirous of marking the anniversary by the erection of a statue of Our Lady. "To whom our mission society is consecrated."
Approximately two million souls have been brought to the light and life of Christ by the White Fathers in that territory. Father Delmar writes. He calls upon "you Christians of the New World, who, thanks to God's goodness alone have been born and bred in the light of Christ," to "remember your brothers still seated in the shadow of death" in this pagan land.

Youth To Dance New Year's Eve

Reservations for the New Year's Eve dancing party at the Stardust Room in Edgerton Park are being taken at the youth center or at the Police Athletic League office.
Sonny Allan and his band will provide dance music and Maxine Lee is vocalist. A floor show will be staged during the evening and free favors and noisemakers will be given to all attending the party. Dancing will be from 10 p. m. to 2 a. m.
Admission price for this New Year's party will be two dollars per couple.
The Stardust Room is open on Monday and Wednesday for dancing, talking and general amusement of all PAL members. The juke box will have some new records.

Holiday Dances At Immaculate

Plans are near completion for two big holiday dances to be held in Immaculate Conception auditorium under the sponsorship of the Immaculate Youth Club, composed of city high school students.
A large evergreen tree will occupy the center of the dancing floor for the Christmas dance Monday evening, Dec. 27 from 9 to 12. The New Year's dance will be staged Friday, Dec. 31. All high schoolers are invited to these dances. No dance will be held Friday, Dec. 24.
Joe Nolan's fifteen-piece orchestra with Marge Porzell, as featured vocalist and Jack Stevens playing the vibraharp, will be featured.

Visit Czech Shrine

Prague—(NC)—An estimated 20,000 pilgrims have flocked to the Marian shrine of Svata Hora (Holy Mountain) at Pribram, near here this year.
The shrine is under the care of Czech Redemptorists.

Verein Studies Peace Principles

Peace directives of the Holy Father were emphasized by members of Rochester Branch, Catholic Central Verein meeting Sunday afternoon at St. Andrew's Hall. The members heard Joseph H. Gervais, attorney, outline the national organization's peace program.
The society was reminded by Gervais that they make their own the plea of Pope Pius XII for a return of the nations to the moral law and teachings of Jesus Christ as fundamental prerequisites of a just and lasting peace. The society, he said, proclaims its firm belief that such a peace can never be achieved by mere power politics and war.
Gervais led the discussion of the Declaration of Principles adopted at the national convention in Milwaukee last August.
Sections on "Peace Delayed" and "Obstacles to Peace" were studied. President August M. Malar presided.
Members heard reports on the Regional Conference of the State Branch held in Buffalo, Nov. 20. Attendance at the Patronal Feast Mass in St. Michael's Church, Dec. 5 was commended by President Malar.
George Kaseman reported on a successful card party held at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Hall, Dec. 9.

Violet Rays Aid School Attendance

Pittsburgh, Pa.—(NC)—Absentees has been greatly reduced at the new $700,000 Sacred Heart School here as the result of the ultra violet rays used in every classroom throughout the school day, the Rev. Dr. Thomas F. Coakley, pastor, announces that a survey has shown.
The school has 24 classrooms. Father Coakley said that the survey involving the same children was based on absences of whatsoever cause in 1946 as compared with the attendance record in 1948 in the new school. The survey showed that one group in 1946 had an absence record of 35 1/2 days compared to 12 days in 1948, a mother group had 36 days absence in 1946, seven days this year, a third group had 33 days of absences in the old school in 1946 and only five days of absence in 1948 in the new school.

Nazareth Alumna Named WAC Captain

The rank of permanent captain in the Women's Army Corps, Regular Army has been awarded to WAC Captain M. Frances Aman, a Nazareth Academy alumna, and a veteran of World War II.
Miss Aman, whose home is at 4045 East Avenue, Pittsford, was among the first 189 women to be selected as a group and approved for commission by President Truman.
She was employed by Rochester Telephone Corporation until she enlisted in the WAC in January, 1943. Commissioned the following July, she served in Italy for more than a year after the end of the war and was appointed executive officer of the Operations Division, Adjutant General's Section, Allied Forces Headquarters in Italy. She is presently assigned to Governor's Island.
She is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. August F. Aman of the East Avenue address.

Leicester Group To Aid Campfire Girls

Leicester With 29 members present, the annual Christmas Party of the Rosary Society of St. Thomas Aquinas Church was held at Leicester Casino, Dec. 14.
During a short business session, members voted to become one of three societies sponsoring the local group of Campfire Girls.
Mrs. Henry Morrison presented an entertaining Christmas quiz and gifts were exchanged. Mrs. Kenneth Hanna was chairman of a committee serving refreshments.

Catholic Digest Expands Pages

St. Paul—(NC)—Enlargement of the Catholic Digest, published here, to 128 pages with the November issue, and inclusion of two new features were announced by the Rev. Paul Bissard, editor.
The Digest, when founded in 1936, had 60 pages. The enlargement will permit use of color, formerly confined to front and back pages only, throughout the magazine.
The two new features are a 16-page picture story section, and a "Test Your Knowledge" department.
The first picture story is about Sister Maxine, flying Benedictine nun of East Claire, Wis., formerly of St. Cloud, Minn., who teaches physics, including aerodynamics. In the picture story she teaches Maxine Emerson, queen of the 1948 St. Paul Winter Carnival, how to fly.
