'Joyful Hour' To Be Rebroadcast Christmas Day

In response to public request, following last Sunday's national broadcast, "The Joyful Hour," a full-hour Christmas production of the Family Rosary Crusade, will be rebroadcast for listeners of the Rochester area by Station WVET (1280 kc.) on Christmas Day from 1 to 2 p.m. In the Auburn area WMBO will make a transcribed rebroadcast of the same program on Christmas evening.

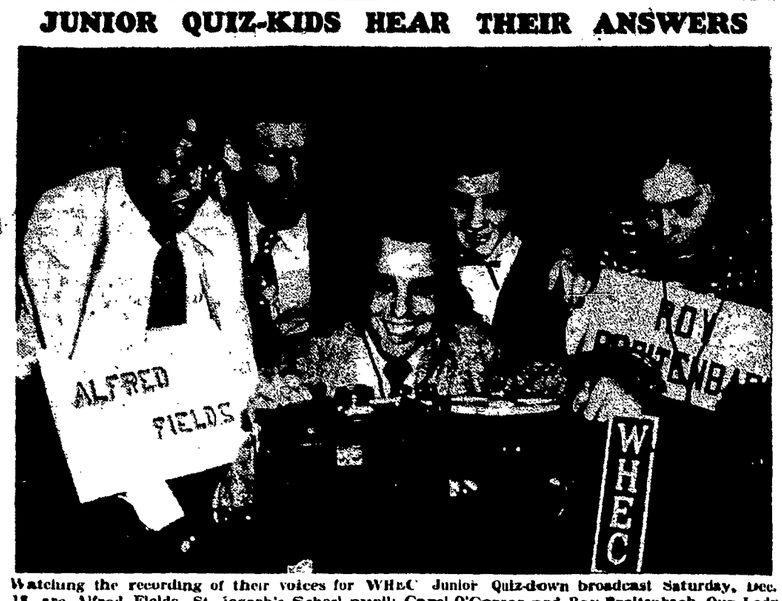
Starring eighteen famous Catholic stars of the movie and radio world, The Joyful Hour features the recitation of the Rosary by the Hollywood artists, dramatic sketches of the Joyful Mysteries and Christmas music.

LEADING ROLES in the dramatic section of the show are played by Ethel Barrymore, Anne Blythe, Pedro de Cordoba, Ann Jamison, Joan Leslie, Roddy McDowell, Maureen O'Hara and Maureen O'Sullivan.

Christmas songs by Bing Crosby, Dennis Day, Christopher Lynch, the Mullen Sisters, and a professional Hollywood choir are supported by the Mutual network's orchestra from New York and Hollywood.

(Editor's Note: Catholic listeners are urged to express their appreciation for these religious programs by writing a note of thanks to Station WVET, 21 Clinton Ave South, Rochester, N. Y. and Station WMBO, Genesee St., Auburn, N. Y. The stations and the network contributed free time and the artists offered their services without charge: public gratitude for these annual programs is the best assurance of their continuance.)

JUNIOR QUIZ-KIDS HEAR THEIR ANSWERS



Watching the recording of their voices for WHEC Junior Quiz-down broadcast Saturday, Dec. 18, are Alfred Fields, St. Joseph's School pupil; Carol O'Connor and Roy Breitenbach, Our Lady of Perpetual Help School. Seated is Craig Williams, standing behind him is Engineer Edward Lynch. Sponsored by WHEC and the Democrat & Chronicle, the program is broadcast from a different parochial school every other week.

'Apostolate of Intellectuals' Launched in Paris Parish

Paris—(NC)—With special authorization from the Holy Father, His Eminence Cardinal Suhard, Archbishop of Paris, has decided to set up a special parish for students and faculty members in the Latin Quarter, where the city's institutions of higher learning are located. It has been named the parish of St Severin.

THERE ARE at least 60,000 students at Paris and they live in different quarters which have their ordinary parishes.

Besides, there already is the Church of the Holy Angels on the edge of the university city with students making up more than half of the parishioners and the Carmelite church for students at the Institute Catholique. But the new parish of St Severin will have priests picked and especially prepared for the apostolate among the intellectuals.

ABBE PEZERIL, friend and confident of George Bernanos, late French novelist, has been named pastor of St Severin. Under his supervision priests and religious who are both men of letters and of science will preach a permanent mission for the students and faculty members. Their sermons will be devoted to the great intellectual, scientific and philosophical problems from the Christian point of view. Cardinal Suhard has already delivered the first of these sermons himself.

The Church of St. Severin, to be used by the new parish, is located near Sorbonne. Its construction dates from the 13th and 15th centuries and it is famous for the beauty of its architecture and the richness of its ancient stained glass windows.

Social Encyclicals Set in British Films

New York — (NC) — A new British sound movie picturing the application of the Papal Encyclicals to industrial life is now available to American audiences from British Information Services here. It has been announced. The 40 minute film, entitled "Family Affair," is accompanied by statements by His Eminence Bernard Cardinal Griffin, Archbishop of Westminster, and the Rev. Joseph Christie, S.J., well known British economist.

Priest-Writer Moves from Radio To Mission Job

New Orleans — (NC) — The Rev. Timothy Mulvey, O.M.I., of New York, widely known for the radio scripts he has written, was among six missionaries who sailed from this city for mission posts in Japan.

Father Mulvey sailed with two other Oblate priests — the Rev. Leonard Scannell of Manchester, N.H., and William McLoughlin of Lowell, Mass. They are bound for Shikoku, Japan, stronghold of Buddhism, where they will join three other Oblates and open the first mission of their community in Japan.

Father Mulvey is the author of prize-winning radio scripts and several other scripts for Catholic Hour broadcasts and a number of productions on the Family Theater program, which is directed by the Rev. Patrick Peyton, C.S.C. He also helped write and direct The Joyful Hour produced on a national network at the Easter and Christmas seasons.

The priests will serve an area embracing 742 cities, towns and villages, which have a total population of 800,000, including about 220 Catholics. The other Oblates, who sailed from this city a week ago, are the Revs. Robert Gill of New York, former superior of the Oblate Scholasticate in Washington, who will be superior of the mission; Charles McBennett of Fayetteville, N.C., former Army chaplain, and Leonard Robitaille of Duluth, Minn., former provincial-procurator of the English Oblates in Canada.

Congo State Runs Only Five Schools

Leopoldville, Belgian Congo — (NC) — Only five of the more than 27,000 schools in the Belgian Congo are operated under State auspices, the rest are conducted by Catholic and Protestant missionaries. The State schools teach 4,132 pupils and the mission schools 930,518 pupils.

Only about 8,000 of the larger mission schools with an enrollment of 111,410 children, receive State subsidies.

Six Midnight Mass Broadcasts, Dramas Fill the Christmas Air

Listeners in the Rochester diocese will find it hard to miss the Midnight Mass of Christmas Eve this year for five Rochester stations and an Auburn station will carry the full ceremonies of the Mass and sermons plus special programs of Christmas music from midnight to 1 a.m. Friday evening.

The Solemn Pontifical Mass of His Excellency Bishop Kearney and his Christmas sermon will be broadcast by WHAM from the Sacred Heart Pro - Cathedral. WVET will carry the services from Holy Rosary Church and WSAY's microphones will pick up the Mass from St. Monica's Church. Old St. Mary's Church will have the facilities of WHEC. WARC and the ABC network will bring to the diocese the Midnight Mass celebrated by Archbishop Joseph P. Rummel in St. Louis Cathedral, New Orleans.

St. Mary's Church of Auburn will broadcast the Christmas Eve Mass and music over WMBO for listeners in the eastern part of the diocese.

SINGER JOHN CHARLES Thomas and John Nesbitt, well-known radio story teller, combine talents next Wednesday evening at 9:30 p.m. on the Family Theater program to present a traditional story of Christmas, "The Juggler of Our Lady". This exquisite folk-tale is a story set in a monastery where a wandering juggler, watching the monks prepare various gifts for the Christ-Child, presents the most acceptable gift of all by performing his circus tricks for the Mother and Infant. WVET and WMBO, Auburn and 430 Mutual network stations carry the program "in the interest of daily family prayer."

THE REV. Joseph T. Snee, professor of religion at Cathedral College, New York City's preparatory seminery, speaks on "The Word Made Flesh" at 10 a.m. Sunday Dec. 26, on the CBS Church of the Air, carried by Rochester's WHEC and Ithaca's WHCU.

THE GREATEST STORY Ever Told, radio's foremost religious-drama program, presents "Star of Peace" this Sunday evening at 6:30 p.m. on the ABC network and Rochester's WARC (950 kc.) A dramatization of the journey of the three Wise Men, the play has a modern lesson for it teaches that after many wanderings men find peace only when they find Christ.

THE REV. Phillip McGhan chaplain of St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira, is this Sunday's speaker on the Elmira Catholic Hour heard on WENY each Sunday at 12:15 p.m. Discussing the birth of Christ, Father McGhan will explain the ancient prophesies which fortold the coming of the Messiah.

THE HOUR of St. Francis, heard on WSAY each Sunday at 6:30 p.m. presents "Escape to Paradise" this Sunday evening. Frank Scully, author and theatrical commentator, describes the peaceful paradise that a retreat-house offers and the happiness of soul men and women find in three days of silence and meditation.

Irish Set Annual Theater Awards

Dublin — (RNS) — Awards for the best work of the year in the cinema, the theater, radio and music have been instituted here by the Irish Catholic Stage Guild. They will be made on the advice of an international committee, and winners will be chosen from countries throughout the world.

The awards will be in the form of statuettes representing St. Genesius, St. Francis, St. Cecilia, St. Patrick, St. Brigid, and St. Columcille, now being designed by a noted Irish artist. First presentation probably will be made at the Guild's next annual benefit show in Dublin at the end of 1949.

'Joan of Arc' Wins Magazine Award

Union City, N. J. — (NC) — Jerry Cotter, motion picture editor, has announced that the seventh annual award of The Sign magazine for the outstanding picture of the year, has been voted to Walter Wanger for his RKO-Radio release, "Joan of Arc."

In singling out the picture for the honor, the magazine paid tribute to the star, Ingrid Bergman, the entire cast, the direction of Victor Fleming and the scenario of Maxwell Anderson and Andrew Solt. The magazine said "It is the motion picture screen at its peak."

Long Trip to Altar

Yuanling, Hunan, China — (NC) — A Chinese seminarian who completed his studies in the United States traveled 14,000 miles to be ordained here by Bishop Cuthbert O'Gara, C.P., of Yuanling, and become the first native priest of this northwest Hunan diocese. He is the Rev. John F. Nien who completed his studies at St Mary's Seminary, Baltimore. He was born at Supu, 40 miles south of here.
