Trip To New York Rewards Aquinas Football Squad
 Aquinas Institute football squad opened a post-Christmas present this week when thirty-four players, school officials and press and radio guests, entrained for four-days of New York City pleasure as a reward for an undefeated gridiron season.

Plans for the holiday trip included two visits to Madison Square Garden to see a college basketball doubleheader and a professional game between the Rochester Royals and the N. Y. Knickerbockers. The squad also had tickets for a Fred Waring broadcast at Radio City, dinner engagements at several leading restaurants and hopes of seeing a Broadway stage show.
