Members of the laity of a record number called upon His Excellency Bishop Kearney at the episcopal residence, 947 East Ave., to exchange New Year's greetings Sunday in a custom inaugurated by the Bishop when he came to Rochester diocese eleven years ago.

Civic leaders, heads of Catholic organizations, non-Catholic friends and family groups representing all ages visited the Bishop's home to be greeted personally by him and to wish him a Happy New Year.

The people also paid a visit to the Blessed Sacrament in the Bishop's private chapel, and inspected the crib on the fire-place mantle in the dining room.

A card with the Bishop's coat-of-arms expressed the greeting for the New Year in the following:

"Your kind visit on the opening of a New Year is something I deeply appreciate. May God's choicest blessings be yours in the New Year."

The Rev. Dr. John E. Maney, secretary to the Bishop and ten members of the Knights of Columbus assisted in greeting the callers. The knights were: Jack Hedges, Harry B. Crowley, Thomas F. Farrell, William T. Nolan, Daniel E. Macken, W. Raymond Whiteley, Joseph A. Murphy, Eugene F. Bopp, Charles A. Tucker and Augustine M. Nolan.
