Chemung CWV Convention Set On Jan. 16

A convention and installation of County and Post officers will be combined with the annual party of St. Michael's Post, No. 1068, Catholic War Veterans at Elmira's Columbus Center, Sunday, Jan. 16.

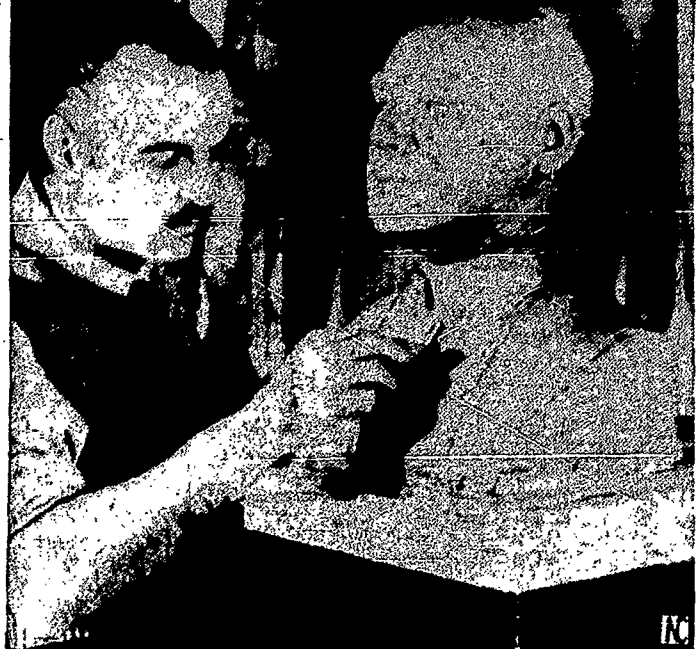

Gordon M. Ridenour, local Radio commentator and Americanism Chairman of Chemung County American Legion will be the guest speaker. Mr. Ridenour will discuss communism as it affects the local area.

Other Posts participating will be St. Nicholas, St. Casimir's and St. Anthony's.

Frank T. Ketter, Commander of the Chapter is in charge of arrangements.

A spaghetti supper and boxing bouts from the neighborhood House will round out the program.

MARKS 10th ANNIVERSARY

Paolo Vaccarino, Florentine sculptor, puts the finishing touches on a bust of His Eminence, Francis Cardinal Spellman, which will be finished in bronze and placed on the Fordham University campus to mark the tenth anniversary of the arrival of His Eminence in May, 1939, to take over his duties as Archbishop of New York. The sculptor is also working on a 35-foot statue of Christ for the Catholic seminary at Albonito, Puerto Rico. (NO Photos.)

St. Helen's Youth Club to Install Officers Sunday

New officers of St. Helen's Youth Club will be installed Sunday, Jan. 9, in a ceremony in the church to be followed by Benediction, according to the Rev. Louis J. Hohman, club moderator. A short business meeting will be held in the church hall.

Charles Schott is new president of the club, succeeding Lucille Gaelens. Other officers include Albert Gaelens, vice-president; Marilyn Hynes, secretary and Patricia Fisher, treasurer.

Committee heads announced by the new president include James Oliver and Robert Freudigman, refreshments; Carl Hartz and Don Craig, cleanup; Robert Tyrell, Catholic literature; Nancy Dicks, entertainment; Fred Tyler, publicity; Lucille Gaelens, membership; Theodore Case and Catherine Gilhoel, nursery.

Editor of the "Cross and Crown" monthly bulletin, will be Mary Agnes Spillings. Mary Ann Entress is associate editor and Madreen Moore business manager. On the staff are Patricia Fisher, Theodore Case and Marilyn Hynes.

St. Stanislaus' Dances Resume

With "Youth Dances" scheduled to resume, St. Stanislaus Auditorium will be a meeting place for Catholic youth of Rochester on Sunday night, sponsors state.

The dance which took place during the football season was successful but discontinued during the Season of Advent by those in charge.

Plans have been completed to hold the dances during January and February, first to be held Sunday, Jan. 9, continuing each Sunday to Feb. 27. Sponsors by the Santan A.C. and the Sodality, the dances will be chaperoned by married couples of the parish.

Advisors are the Rev. Matthew A. Sludara, moderator of Santan A.C. and the Rev. John Cleasliak, Sodality moderator.

Katherine Wiszorek is general chairman assisted by Dorothy Konezny, Paul Bogacki, and Marie Slwicki. Dan Emerson is on the publicity committee.

The dances will feature Bill O'Brien's band and will be held in the Auditorium, corner of Hudson Ave. and Norton St.

Auburn Bar Unit Honors Miss Elizabeth Harmon

Auburn — Retired after 47 years as Cayuga County Surrogate's Court stenographer, Miss Elizabeth A. Harmon was presented with a citation testifying to the appreciation of members of Cayuga County Bar Association and with a frequency modulation radio set, at a ceremony in the Surrogate's Court room, Friday, Dec. 31.

Miss Harmon is widely known throughout Rochester diocese as a Catholic Daughters of America district deputy in which office she has served for nearly 25 years.

In recognition of her outstanding work in Catholic circles, Miss Harmon was awarded the "Pro Ecclesia Et Pontifice" Medal by Pope Pius XI in 1932. Presentation was made by the late Most Rev. John Francis O'Hern, Bishop of Rochester.

The Bar Association's honor came to Miss Harmon as a complete surprise Friday. She had come to the office that morning at the request of Surrogate Leonard H. Searing with him and Mrs. Searing in the surrogate's car.

In the surrogate's court room, the radio was presented to Miss Harmon as a gift from the Bar Association, county officials, employees and associates. The presentation was made by Attorney A. Ervin Blauvelt, Bar Association president, who read the citation and added words of cordial appreciation and good wishes.

ALTHOUGH UNAWARE that anything of the sort was to take place, Miss Harmon responded appropriately.

Addressing Bar President Blauvelt, Mayor Edward T. Boyle, Surrogate Searing and others present, Miss Harmon said: "If I deserve the nice things set forth in the citation, believe me it was in the line of duty but it was always a pleasure to serve you all. In the future, please make it your line of duty to give me that pleasure by letting me be of assistance at any time."

"I find myself in an embarrassing position because my limited vocabulary does not seem to have the proper words to thank you fully and adequately for this beautiful gift."

Miss Harmon was the dinner guest at the attaches of the surrogate's office Friday noon in the Osborne Hotel.

THE CITATION presented to Miss Harmon by the Cayuga Bar Association, signed by A. Ervin Blauvelt, president and Burke Carson, secretary, read as follows:

"To Elizabeth A. Harmon — It is with extreme regret that the members of the Cayuga County Bar Association have learned of the retirement of Elizabeth A. Harmon, Cayuga County Surrogate's Court stenographer.
