Teen Talks Blind Date Dream?

Why so puzzled, Suzy? At this point your new look is a very decidedly worried one. Is it intermediate algebra or a chemistry equation that has you in such a quandary?

By NOEMA DE FREZ... You may not appreciate it's sentimental value... Use makeup, but do not forget that it's application is a dying art.

Convert Begins Religion Series On China Radio

Peiping, China (NC) - To his three daily programs, narrating the classic stories of Chinese history and fiction, Chao Ying-po, Peiping's story teller of the air waves, has added a series of 15-minute broadcasts explaining the Catholic religion.

Mr. Chao, an authority on Buddhism and the folklore of Peiping, has won a wide radio audience. His story-telling broadcasts are each of an hour's length, and are transmitted from three different Peiping stations.

Mr. Chao became a convert to the Catholic faith last June. Two of his radio aides have since been converted, and on December 3 all the members of his family, who were at first strongly opposed to his conversion, were baptized at the Church of the Immaculate Conception here.

New Parishes Tokyo (NC) - One new parish has been established and two or three others will be opened in the Diocese of Seoul soon, according to the Very Rev. Gerard Pare, Provincial Superior of the Dominicans in Canada, who has just completed a visitation of his Order's houses in Japan.

GOOD DREAMS in which religious truth is adapted to everyday situations in an entertaining story can be found each weekend in these shows: The Ave Maria Hour; from Elmira's WELM, each Sunday at 2:30 p.m.; The Greatest Story Ever Told; from Rochester's WARC, each Sunday at 6:30 p.m.
