Spencerport Holy Name Men Hear Call To Leadership

Men of the Holy Name Society must provide the answer to the need for "an active lay leadership to express individually and collectively the mind of the Church," Martin Q. Mok, a vice-president of the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union, told members of the Holy Name Society of St. John the Evangelist Church, Spencerport, Monday night.

Mok urged the men to "be the strong right arm of our Bishop and your pastor in all things concerning the welfare of the Church." The speaker was introduced by Arthur P. Farren, executive secretary of the Diocesan Union.

Named for 1949 at an election held in the office of the Association was Thomas Green, senior at Aquinas Institute as vice-chairman and Rita Ennis Nazareth Academy senior, secretary. William Howard, Charlotte High Junior was named chairman and Sheldon Altman, Monroe High senior was elected chairman of the program committee.

A member of the committee named to plan activities for the year is Marsha Bradley, a Junior at Our Lady of Mercy High School.

VETERAN KNIGHT HONORED

Killian F. Eckert, (left) for his 61 years faithful service as a Knight of St. John is shown receiving check from Supreme Council Leo G. Hosenfeld at testimonial dinner in Knights and Ladies of St. John Club. Joining in tribute are Mr. Eckert's grandson, Eugene Eckert, behind him and Emil G. Eckert, his son, president of St. Eustace Commandery.

Knights for 61 Years Feted On Retiring As Treasurer

Retiring as treasurer of St. Eustace Commandery No. 39, Knights of St. John after more than 20 years in that post, Killian F. Eckert was honored by the Commandery at a dinner, Saturday in Knights and Ladies of St. John Club, 363 Andrews St.

Mr. Eckert has a record of 61 years of membership in the Knights of St. John having joined the order when 18 years of age. At present he holds the office of Commissary on the Colonel's staff.

Presented with a check from the members by Brigadier General Leo G. Hosenfeld, supreme council, Mr. Eckert was held up as an example by Hosenfeld for members in the Knights of St. John or any other worthwhile organization for steadfast loyalty over a period of years to a Catholic lay society.

During his long span of years in the order, Mr. Eckert has always been active in the untarnished branch of the knights. Presiding at the dinner was his son, Emil G. Eckert, president of St. Eustace Commandery. Other guests included his grandson, Eugene Eckert; another grandson, Girard Rosner, a son-in-law John Rosner, and Arnold Eckert, a nephew who is succeeding his uncle as Commandery treasurer.

Arrangements for the dinner were made by Chairman Clement H. Schluter, chairman of the house committee.
