Parish Library Lets Out 5838, Add 428 Books

Auburn—A substantial growth from all angles was noted from reports given at the January meeting of the St. Alphonsus Parish Library staff Thursday evening in the East Genesee Street Parish House.
 When the library was opened to the public November 20, 1947, there were 2,100 books on the shelves but as of December 31, 1948, St. Alphonsus Library now contains 1,528 books, it was pointed out.
BOOKS ADDED by purchase during the year have been chiefly by fiction, children's books and timely, modern non-fiction, and are considered to be valuable in formative literature. The number of books circulated during the year totaled 5838.
 As a substitute for comic books, parents were urged to have their children make use of the library and to check good books, according to the reports made.
 Mrs. Harvey Clark is head librarian and Miss Catherine Anton, library treasurer. A volunteer staff is responsible for the library when it is opened to the public from 7 to 9 o'clock every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evening and their services will be available to all library patrons.

Archery Exhibition Features Meeting for St. Ambrose Men

Demonstration of the skills of archery highlighted a large crowd at the regular meeting of the St. Ambrose Church Holy Name Society on Monday night.
 Only the apple and the William Tell overture were missing as Walter J. Mayri and Howard Guard, members of the Rochester Archery Club, put on a performance with the bow and arrow. Particularly delighted with the show were several teenagers of the parish, who were specially invited to the Holy Name meeting.
 Greatest applause was accorded Dick Cappon and His Musical Pantomimes, who did a "take-off on Spike Jones." Other performers, most of whom are members of the parish, included:
 Kathleen Cleary, singer; Dick Whitley, piano concerto; Shirley Scullery, accordion and tap dancing; Ronny Burbank, singer; Paul Ayers, songs and tap; Frank W. Whitley, Margaret Baumgartner and Mrs. Leo Hunniman, accompanists; Ed Beglin, monologist; Jim Farrell, Irish songs; William Spitz, trumpet; Herb Kern, guitar and songs; Theresa Mascarella, operatic soprano.
 William Quinlan was master of ceremonies. Co-chairmen of the meeting were George Blaudinger and Frank W. Whitley with James Cleary heading the refreshments committee.

Bowling League Scores

CATHOLIC LEAGUE
 Resuming bowling after the holidays, Catholic League competitors found Switzer of St. Ambrose with high individual score of 222 at the end of the evening.
 Others with high individual games were: Schulz, St. Boniface, 203; Valvano, Immaculate Conception No. 1, 203; Beluke, St. George's 214; Schirmer, 214 and Messmer, 213 for St. Charles No. 2 team.
 Three teams downed their opponents in the three matches. Winners were H.R.A.A. No. 1 over St. John's No. 1; Immaculate Conception No. 1 over St. John's No. 2; St. Charles No. 2 over Immaculate No. 2.
 With a 957 opening game, St. George won two from St. Charles No. 1 but lost the third. Corpus Christi team rolled the last two games better than H.R.A.A. No. 2 after the latter won the opening. St. Boniface topped St. Ambrose team in the first and third game, but the Empire Boulevard team with a 920 game won the second match.
KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN
 Mt. Carmel commandery was leading the Knights of St. John Bowling League during week ending Jan. 6.
 Highest in team average were Mt. Carmel, 2803 and St. George's, 2705. High team game record was also held by Mt. Carmel with 983, second, St. George's, 948.

Genacle Chaplain Hits Selfishness
 Geneva—Individual selfishness and narrowness are being fostered by present world conditions, Rev. Paul E. Tuttle, chaplain of Our Lady of the Cenacle Retreat house in Rochester, told members of the St. Stephen's Rosary society at a meeting Wednesday, Jan. 5, in Woman's building.
 The world of materialism is too much with us and we are forgetting the things of the spirit, Father Tuttle advised in his talk on "Thinking With The Church."
 Society members discussed plans for a card party and apron sale in the near future.
 Refreshments were served. The committee included Mrs. Fred Burke, chairman; and Mrs. John Reddy, Mrs. Anton Bauer, Mrs. John Bogart, Mrs. William Van Norwick, Mrs. John Walsh, Mrs. J. Robert Ransford and Mrs. Martin Lawler.
