Waterloo Church Interior Extensively Transformed

Waterloo—St. Mary's Church at Waterloo, has practically completed a program of extensive repairs and alterations under the supervision of Rev. George T. McCall, Pastor.

O'Flaherty founded the first parish. At that time a small Church was erected in the south of the present structure and after erection of the new church, the building was used for the first Catholic school. Later it was used as a hall and when the building had outgrown its usefulness, was torn down. The present St. Mary's Church was erected during the pastorate of Rev. L. A. Lambert. Additions were made under the management of Rev. James Harrington, who for many years served the Parish. He was succeeded by Rev. Coleman F. O'Loughlin, who served as Pastor until his death. Father McCall was next in line, coming to Waterloo in June of 1929.

Father McCall served at Holy Family Church, Auburn for two years. At St. Mary's Church, Rochester, for four years and was Pastor of St. Michael's Church in Livonia Center, for fourteen years previous to coming to Waterloo.
