has been channeled humanely, it of family-type farmers.

Nancheng, Klangsi, China-(NC)-The most important individual conversion of late years in this area took place when Yang Ta-ching, a meandarin, with his wife and two children, received Baptism in the cathedral here.

Mr. Yang, M-year-old graduate of the Political Institu Nanking, belongs to a family from which six mandarins-Chinese officials-have come in four generations. Mrs. Yan brother is also a mandarin. Soon after his arrival here to take office in 1946, Mr. Wang's interest in the (hurch was quickened by the charitable activities of the St. Columbian priests and Sisters, especially of the Rev. Edward MacElroy, S.S.C., who headed welfare activities in the For more than a year the mandarin took instructions from the Rev. James K. L. Yang, young Chinese priest of the Nancheng diocese. The Sisters of St. Columban instructed Mrs. Yang and their growing daughter. The second child is in imfant. The Baptism ceremony was attended by a large congregation. Dr. Thomas Tseng-mien, graduate of the University of Louvain, now professor in the University of Namcheng, and Mrs. Tseng were sponsors. Bishop Patrick Cleary, S.S.C., of Nancheng, celebrated Mass for the new converts and gave them their first Holy Communion.

MRP Pledges Church Schools

Paris - (RNS) - A drive to enforce a government decree authorizing mumicipal authorities to give financial grants to parents who wish to send their children to church schools has been pledged by the Popular Republican Movement.

The decree was issued last summer, over the protest of leftist groups, by Mizplater of Public Health and Population Madame Germaine Poinso-Chapuis.

CRITICS HAVE charged that the MRP campaign is likely to revive political quarrels between anti-clericals and supporters of "Christian education," but Minister of Foreign Affairs Robert Schuman, one of the leaders of the MRP, has replied that the matter is "orse of life or death for our party."

"The MRP may be beaters on this question." he said, "but at leas we will have fought to cary out our pre-election promise and will be able to return to power eventually in a strongower eventually in a strongposition."

CHURCH SCHOOLS in France ceive no State aid. The cost educating children in these chools is met jointly, by parents nd by collections taken up in Madame 'Poinso-Chapuis' decree has up till now been merely a paper one, but the MRP. in view of its losses in recent local elections and the growing pressure from its supporters, is urging that it be put into effective application at once.

ACCORDING TO some positical observers, the MRP drive may lead to another political crisis, especially since the government is launching a national loan for money to cover the deficit in the present year's bud-

State support for church schools was recently pledged by General Charles de Gaulle, leader of the Reumion of the French ople (RFP), now the leading grap in the Council of the Re-public He told an RFP gather-ing in Secember that "the lassue school support onths, as threatens divide the Frexich people," and that "there is no reason why hyate establishments should not given help."

Army Chailes GI 'Dog-Tag"

Washington - (NO) - A "dog tage" worn by U. S. soldiers, to permit designation of religious faiths outside the three principal classifications, has been recommended by the Army Chief and Chamblains.

Besides the present "C" for Catholic, "H" for Hebrew, and "P" for Protesiant, an "X" would be starraged out the idera-Ministion tags of solidiers with other affiliations. Those wearing "X" tags would be permix-ted to carry an additional rnetal disc or tag perovided by their church to designate their parilcular, hith.
