St. Agnes Club 'Ransoms' Its 9th Pagan Baby

St. Agnes Club forwarded its ninth ransom of a pagan baby to the diocesan office of the Holy Childhood Association, during the past week.

This mission club was formed a year ago under the leadership of Carol Legler. Proceeds from the sale of pot holders and stocking dolls have made it possible for the St. Agnes Club to ransom eight babies from China and one from Africa.

The pot holders and stocking dolls are all made by the members — Shirley Stamm, Carol Young, Marie Lynch, Deborah Shea, and Carol, and the girls pay for all the materials needed.

Each week the girls meet at the home of one of the members at which time they work on the project, conduct their business meeting, and refreshments are served.

With the addition of two new members, Joan Hotchkiss and Judy Timmerman, the club now numbers seven members, all Sixth Grade pupils of St. Thomas School, Rochester. Deborah Shea is the president for this year.

St. Salome's Unit Sets Installation

St. Salome's Mission Society has completed plans for its annual installation banquet to be held at Rose Carlin's Wednesday, Feb. 9 at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Clement Harris will turn over the gavel to Mrs. Bernard Herold, new president. Other new officers who will take over are: Mrs. Edwin Desmond, vice president; Mrs. Ralph Fritz, secretary; and Mrs. Leo Henrik, treasurer.

Mrs. Joseph Audiri, chairman of the event, has as her committee, Mesdames Carmen Carmelo, Charles Conroy, John Casperson, Lawrence Fox, Frank Pauer, Leonard Reiss. Everyone is requested to meet in the church parking lot at six o'clock.
