Nazareth Seniors To Name Queen at Valentine Ball

The Senior Valentine Ball scheduled for Friday evening, Feb. 11 will follow the successful Winter Carnival held at Nazareth College last Sunday. A Queen has also been chosen for the Valentine Ball and she will have four attendants. Their identities will be kept secret until the crowning ceremony takes place. The Queen will reign on a throne of hearts in bright valentine colors.

The valentine theme will be carried out in decorating the College auditorium where the semi-formal dance will be held. Jimmy Dennis will provide music for dancing from nine until one.

HONORARY CHAIRMAN Geraldine Schwartz and General Chairman Betty Caravanaugh will be assisted by: Irene Kocak, chairman, assisted by Marilyn Metz, Pat Dugan, Caroline Pisciello, Claire Hemmer, Loretta Kelly, Felicia Wolozyn and Mary Jane Gillespie. Refreshments, Marguerite Ruggiero, chairman, assisted by Madeline Manella, Rita Contestable and Shirley Vogt. Bids, Dorothy Louis Orchestra, Rita Zimmer. Invitations, Jane Gaffney, chairman, assisted by Betty Crowley and Virginia Smallridge. Clean-up, Jean Monaghan, chairman, assisted by Mary Irish, Helen Crotty, Annette Gauthier and Mary Schumacher.

At the afternoon of snow frolics Sunday, Dorothy Wagner of 74 Appleton St. was crowned "Queen of the Winter Carnival." The 21-year-old senior received the honor at the hands of Sister Teresa Marie, the College's dean, in the ceremony highlight of the campus festival.

Outdoor sports, films, snow displays and a plane dropping "schmoos" were on the program arranged by Chairmen Paula Spearman, Helen O'Neill and Suzanne Wigg.

Marine Fathers Meet
