State K. of C. Post Given To Oswego Unit Secretary

Utica — Appointment of Frank M. Linehan of Oswego as Executive Assistant to the State Deputy of New York State Knights of Columbus is announced today by State Deputy William E. Burke.

As executive assistant to the State Deputy, Linehan will aid in the carrying out of the program of the State Council. His position was created by action of the Council meeting in Rochester in May 1948.

The State Council is made up of 250 councils in as many communities in the state. Membership is close to 100,000 members, making this state the largest jurisdiction in the Order.

THE GROWTH OF THE ORDER in recent years necessitated additional assistance to the State Deputy in correlating the program and assisting subordinate councils in accomplishing the objectives of the Order. Linehan's headquarters for the present will be in Utica.

The appointee is a native of Schenectady. He is a 1945 graduate of the University of Notre

BOY MEETS 'MR. FOOTBALL'

A sixth-grade pupil of Our Lady of Lourdes School, Brighton, 11-year-old Jack Fink, meets Frank Leahy, Notre Dame's famed football coach experiencing the "game in a life-time thrill." Jack accompanied his dad, Arthur J. Fink, Stromberg-Carlson assistant credit manager, to LeRoy last week where Leahy was chief speaker at the Knights of Columbus Sports Night. Program was arranged by Dr. Thomas K. O'Mealla, LeRoy, roommate and classmate of Leahy's at Notre Dame.

Youth Active In Portugal Election

By SUSAN L. MARQUES

Liabon — (NC) — The choice of a former high masonic official as the presidential candidate of the opposition party add a statement issued by the Catholic Youth Movement warning its followers against masonic or communist political movements have stirred great interest for Catholics in the presidential race here. The election is scheduled for February 13.

THIS YEAR marks the first time that the government has permitted the naming of an opposition candidate for a presidential election since it came to power in 1926. The opposition has chosen 82-year-old Gen. Jose Norton de Matos, former grand master of the Grand Orient Freemasons and a prominent member of the political group which came into power after the revolution of 1910.

The government party has proposed President Antonio Oscar de Fragoso Carmona, 78, for reelection. He has held the post since he was first elected in 1926. His term expires April 15.

NEITHER HIS Eminence Cardinal Goncalves Cerejeira, Patriarch of Lisbon, nor any other member of the Portuguese Hierarchy has made any pronouncement on the election. Two or three priests have written articles on behalf of the opposition group.

The statement made by the Catholic Youth Movement, which is under ecclesiastical direction, emphasizes that the Church is above politics but adds that Catholics are in conscience bound to support only those candidates who will safeguard the rights of the Church. It declares that all Catholics have a serious obligation, first of all, to vote; but, secondly, to vote only for those political factions which are not joined with organizations condemned by the Church such as communism or freemasonry.

THE CATHOLIC YOUTH statement urges its followers to take a strong stand against youth groups which parade under a standard of liberty and democracy and are really directed by communists. These groups encourage the membership of Catholics, but only separate them from their Bishops by painting the latter as fascists, the statement says.

Press censorship has been partially lifted by the government of Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar for the election campaign.

The leading paper for the opposition has used the occasion to attack the popular Portuguese devotion to Our Lady of Fatima. Protests against these attacks have been made by a Catholic women's group of Leiria. Young Catholic men held a huge protest rally at the Church of Our Lady of Fatima here and attended services in reparation for these attacks.

Damphlet Sales Now 13 Million; Buffalo Lauded

Washington — (NC) — The Buffalo Diocesan Pamphlet Society is credited with "a most effective distribution" by the "Index of Catholic Pamphlets" released here.

The Buffalo group has established 315 pamphlet racks in parishes and institutions, and in 1947 distributed 182,880 titles, according to the "Index."

American Catholic pamphlets are selling at the rate of more than 15,000,000 a year, statistics reveal. Total sales are approximately double those during the 1930s.

Leading pamphlet publisher is the Faith Press of New York, the report showed. Last year it sold 3,538,506 pamphlets at prices ranging from 5 to 25 cents. The Queen's Work of St. Louis ranked second among publishers and the Catholic Information Society of New York third.

The "Index" lists 417 pamphlet titles. For the first time it includes selections from catalogues of the Catholic Truth Society of London, the Catholic Truth Society of Dublin, the Irish Messenger Office and the Catholic Social Guild of Oxford.

Irish Guild Awards Artists

Dublin — (NC) — The Catholic Stage Guild of Ireland will award six statuettes for merit on the stage, the radio and in the films. Three of the statuettes are those of St. Patrick, St. Brigid and St. Columille. The winners are of St. Francis, St. Cecilia and St. Genesius. St. Cecilia award is for the field of music.

Canandaigua HNS Protests Trial Of Hungary Rimate

Canandaigua — A resolution protesting the "trial" of Cardinal Mindszenty as "a travesty of justice" was unanimously adopted by 160 members of St. Mary's Church Holy Name Society on Sunday, Feb. 6.

T. Hamilton Kennedy was elected president of the Society by the large number of men who attended Holy Communion in a body at 8 o'clock Mass and held breakfast meeting in the church hall.

Others elected included Frank H. Dhondt, vice-president; Daniel A. Farchione, secretary; Francis J. Rice, treasurer; Thomas J. O'Sullivan and Sesto Vecchi, delegate to the Diocesan HN Union.

NEXT COMMUNION breakfast of the Society will be held on Holy Name Sunday, Mar. 13 at 8:45 a. m., according to the pastor, Rev. John P. Duffy, assistant director of the parish Holy Name Society.

Discussion of a revision of the constitution, frequency of meetings and amount of dues will comprise the business for the next meeting. Father Duffy said. Official Holy Name manual materials will be distributed to all present.

Members extended thanks to those who assisted in the breakfast preparations including Mrs. Raymond R. Rodney, Mrs. Wendell Toomey, Miss Edna Ackerly, Miss Mary Toomey and Miss Joan L'naugh.
