Work Started On First Parish Hall In Waverly

Waverly — When a new parish hall now being constructed under St. James Church, here in Waverly, is completed, the parish will have its first church hall since the parish was founded, according to the Rev. Robert J. Fox, pastor.

On completion of the modernly equipped and furnished hall will provide the first definite meeting place for parish organizations. Provisions will be made for catechetical work, Father Fox states, and a more active social life in the parish is anticipated.

This is one project in the diocese conducted without a campaign, funds having been accumulated by the pastor with the cooperation of people in the parish and community.

Excavating work was begun last week and the project will be carried on until the hall seating 600 persons is ready for use. The present church was built in 1912 and alterations will

Third Order of St. Francis

The Third Order of St. Francis will hold a meeting at 3:30 p. m. Sunday, Feb. 27 at St. Patrick's Church, Plymouth Avenue North. Benediction will follow the session.

The general public should be interested in knowing in how many cases, membership in the Third Franciscan Order has inspired persons to greater sanctity, leaders of the group affirm.

Two great penitents, Matt Talbot and Eve de Lavalliere were tertiary, as were many Popes of the Church. The famous Baroness de Hueck, founder of the Franciscan way. Another Franciscan who found the Order a stepping-stone to personal holiness is Thomas Merton. Trappist monk who recently authored the best-seller "The Seven Storey Mountain." The Discalced Carmelites also gained a member who was a Franciscan, Jessica Powers, poet, who became Sister Miriam of the Holy Spirit.

Claraldi Heads Bond District

Appointment of Joseph V. Claraldi, manager of Rochester's Bond store, as district manager of Bond Stores Inc. was announced this week.

Mr. Claraldi will continue to pursue the duties of his present position in addition to supervising the activities of the Bond Stores, according to Irving L. Moselowitz, Bond's vice-president.

The newly-appointed district manager started working for the organization in 1930 as a window trimmer in the Rochester store. Eight years later he was made assistant manager, a position which he held until 1943 when he enlisted in service and spent 21 months overseas. After his return to Rochester in 1945, he was named manager of the local store. He is a member of St. Ambrose parish, here.

Aquinas Show Lists New Acts

Hilarious novelties are being featured by the cast of 70 students appearing in the annual Variety Show Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this week in Aquinas Institute Auditorium.

Directed by Raymond J. Hasenauer, director of the Aquinas band, the show is presenting specialty acts introduced by Arthur Kirn as master of ceremonies.

The Brindisi brothers are appearing in their dance number "The Scourge of Wretchedness." George "Gorge" is paying a visit. A group of students under Larry Dolan, is staging the ever-popular "Lighthouse Keeper's Daughter." Another group led by Dick Cappon is harmonizing on the Spike Jones version of "Happy New Year" and "Love in Bloom." Gene Eckert is the principal in a skit entitled "Your Stuck With It."

The six "dancing dolls" will take on a Spanish atmosphere with real Spanish Caballeros singing in the background, show managers state.

Tickets on sale at the door are colored yellow for Friday night, blue, for Saturday.

Kilmer Club To Repeat Musical

"Jamboree" musical comedy which was presented Friday and Saturday by the Joyce Kilmer Club of Blessed Sacrament will be repeated by popular demand Tuesday evening, Feb. 22 at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

New tickets for this request performance will be made available in the church vestibule of Blessed Sacrament after the Sunday Masses.

The production is an original comedy musical written and directed by James Warren Jr. In it are thirty-three musical numbers, directed by Jane Baumgardner. A cast of 34 members of the Joyce Kilmer Club are the performers.

Central Union Sets Election of Staff

Officers of the Catholic Central Union (Verin), Rochester Branch will be elected at St. Peter and Paul's Hall, Sunday, Feb. 20 at a meeting starting at 2:30 p. m. The members of the National Catholic Women's Union, Rochester Branch, will meet jointly with the men. Luncheon and refreshments will follow the business session.

Music Campaign Seeks $115,700

With a goal of $115,700, the largest in its history, the Rochester Civic Music Association will hold its 21st annual campaign for funds from Feb. 18 to 28. Under the leadership of general chairman Charles W. Carson, over 200 volunteer workers will canvass Rochester and 21 neighboring cities, towns and villages in an effort to put the 10-day drive over the top.

This year's goal which exceeds by $10,000 the amount raised last year, is necessary because of an expected deficit for the current year, following an actual $10,000 deficit for 1947-48.

Campaign funds are used for the maintenance of the association's varied musical program which is tailored to fit all musical tastes and age groups in Rochester.

'Mikado' Set At Nazareth

Final arrangements are being made for the production of the Gilbert and Sullivan opera "The Mikado" which is being presented at Nazareth Academy Wednesday, Feb. 23 and Thursday, Feb. 24.

Frances Masciarelli is cast in the role of Yum Yum. Other members of the cast are: Genevieve Marotta, Petti Sing; Alan Dutcher, Peep-Bo; Joan Jeffrey, Katisha; Art Kline, the lord Mikado; Gene Eckert, Peep-Bah; Nanki Poo, John Gousse; Ray Palmer, Ko Ko; Frank Giannone, Fish-Tush.
