SODALITY DINNER SPEAKERS

Support of the Catholic Press was urged by the Rev. William A. Burns, principal of Elmira Catholic High School, (left) at the 14th annual dinner of the Sodality of Our Lady of St. John the Baptist Church, Elmira, Monday at Van Tassel Tea Room. Mrs. Fred Rehwinkel, (right) was chairman.

St. John's Sodality Urged To Support Catholic Press
"Because of the attacks being made against the Church in so many parts of the world, it is vitally necessary to know well the issues involved," this audience at the 14th annual dinner of St. John the Baptist Church Sodality of Our Lady of St. John the Baptist Church, Elmira, Monday at Van Tassel Tea Room, was told to turn to the Catholic Press by the Rev. William A. Burns, principal of Elmira Catholic High School and main speaker. "The Catholic press," Father Burns said, "is well equipped to do this with a world wide news service and well trained analysts."
He advocated Catholic reading as a prescription for sanity. Father Burns emphasized that Catholic newspapers and magazines bring out the church attitude toward matters pertaining to faith and morals.
With Father Burns at the speakers table were the Rev. Frederic L. Walz, society moderator; Mrs. Charles Kruckow, Jr., society president; Mrs. John L. Benjamin, vice president and Mrs. Frederick Rehwinkel, chairman.
Group singing and entertainment by Shorty Mason and his accordion rounded out the program.
