Ithaca—Thomas J. McGaffery was reelected president of the Holy Name Society of the Church of the Immaculate Conception Church, Feb. 13. The election took place at a breakfast in Clinton Hotel after members and their sons received Holy Communion at the 8 a.m. Mass. Other officers reelected were Vice-President Leon Hammond, Secretary John M. Herson and Treasurer Frank Spedding. Prof. John Brophy of the Industrial and Labor Relations School, Cornell University explained a proposed life adjustment program under study by the U. S. Office of Education. He said that nationally 50 to 60 percent of students entering high school do not finish. Only 20 percent, he said, do not continue on through college. Another 20 percent do not finish high school and enter trades and business. The training program will aim at improving the holding power of the schools and overall dissatisfaction among students who feel they are not getting what they want out of their studies. The Rev. John S. Maloney, assistant pastor and the Society's Moderator praised the good example set by fathers in receiving Communion with their sons. Michael J. Leary was toast master.
