Tiny Patient Pages Doctor, Nurse

Hospital Opens Children's Ward

Completely remodeled the Pe diatrics Department of St. Joscph's Hospital, conducted by Sisters of St. Joseph in Elmira, presents a bright, cheerful appearance, and at the same time makes it possible to give the safest nursing care to the children.

This was realized on a visit by a Catholic Courier Journal Fr. Cuddy Talk representative visiting the hospital, this week.

REBUILD VIENNA CATHEDRAL

The ruins of the Cathedral of St. Stephen, in Vienna, severely damaged by the Nazis during the war. Now partially rebuilt, the nave was reopened for services and will accommodate 7,000 worshippers. It is expected the church will be fully restored in 1952-38. The cost of restoration, which will total $2,000,000. will be financed to a great extent by the voluntary contributions of the people.
