The dinner is one of three nationality observances sponsored by the K of C. Other such dinners, dates of which will be announced later will be Irish and All American.

Couple's Jubilee Noted
By St. Hyacinth Unit

Auburn — Members of St. Theresa Sodality of St. Hyacinth's Church conducted a Valentine party Sunday in the church parish hall. The hall was decorated and the Misses Helen Janas and Agnes Novak had charge of decorations.

Rev. Alphonse Roszak OFM, C. S. A., assistant pastor of the parish, was in charge of the entertainment and winners of various contests were awarded appropriate prizes.

Rev. Jerome Holubowicz OFM, C. S. A., pastor and Rev. Blaise Szymaszek OFM, C. S. A., sang several old time favorites.

A special feature of the party was a mock wedding in honor of the 35th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Novak of 65 Pulaski St. The refreshment committee was headed by Miss Frances Decowski, Sodality president.

Silver Tea Held By St. Alphonsus Girls

Auburn — Girl Scouts of Troop 12 held a Silver Tea in St. Alphonsus Parish House from 4 to 6 p. m. Sunday, February 20. The tea was part of the girls' work and the Hostess Badge towards which the work is now nearing completion.

Each girl in the troop took part in the program and entertainment was provided for guests who visited the Parish House.

The same group of girls enjoyed a Hay Ride last Thursday evening. After about an hour's ride through the city streets passing several of the girls' homes, they returned to the Parish House where three of the mothers of the girls, Mrs. James McCarthy, Mrs. Bernard Daly, and Mrs. Russell Green had a lunch ready for them.

Accompanying the girls were Mrs. John J. Quinn, Mrs. Raymond Conley, Mrs. Olive Garbin, Mrs. Miss Caroline Casper, and Miss Catherine Anton.

Pastor Lauds Girl Program At St. Mary's

Auburn — In a setting traditional to St. Valentine's Day the Leaders Committee of the eight Girl Scout troops of St. Mary's Church held its annual mid-winter dinner at Springside Inn on Monday evening.

Arranged by Mrs. Joseph Tobin and Miss Kathleen Kelly as co-chairmen, the dinner attracted leaders, assistant leaders and committee workers of the various troops.

The Rev. E. Leo McManus, assistant pastor at St. Mary's and moderator of the Girl Scout troops, addressed the group briefly, expressing the regrets of Monsignor William E. Cowen, pastor of St. Mary's, who was unable to attend.

"MONSIGNOR COWEN and we assistant priests recognize the great work you women have been doing and are continuing to do," said Father McManus. "and we realize that without your help nothing could be done in the program of Girl Scout."

The Rev. John P. Norris, assistant pastor at St. Mary's stressed the importance of leadership. Gerald Conroy, organizer at St. Mary's, who has assisted in many Girl Scout projects, reminisced of other activities at St. Mary's. Following the brief remarks of the speakers and group singing, accompanied by Mr. Conroy, motion pictures were shown.

Members of the Leaders Committee who attended were Mrs. Charles Phillips, Miss Mary Phillips, Miss Margery Nelson, Mrs. Norman Arnold, Mrs. John Dugan, Miss Eleanor Cosentino, Miss Dorothy Bodner, Mrs. Canio Maggio, Miss Lola DiCenzo, Miss Miriam Hickey, Miss Dolores Malec, Mrs. Joseph Sartori, Mrs. John Roddy, Miss Patricia Sartori, Mrs. William Gabak, Miss Marie Daly, Mrs. Joseph Murphy, Mrs. Paul Nolan, Mrs. Joseph Milhausen, Miss Genevieve Conti, Mrs. Paul Murphy, Mrs. John Kelly, Miss Mary Jane Conboy, Miss Anna Vintler, Miss Mary Smith, Miss Dianna Amelias and Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald.
