A Catholic Information Center, sponsored by the Rochment of peace and symbol of ester Deanery, Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, opened for public use on Ash Wednesday in the lobby-library of the Columbus Civic Centre.

Planned as a convenient place where Catholics and non-Catholics may make inquiries about the Catholic Faith and use the facilities of library, pamphlet racks and magazine files, the new Center will be open each veekday from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.

On hand to greet the receptionists from the DCCW membership who will staff the Center was the Rev. Edward J. Tolster, assistant pastor of St. Augustine's Church, who will act as director of the new Information Committee.

FATHER TOLSTER outlined the duties of the staff to assist interested, non-Catholics who drop in seeking answers to questions about the Church and to arrange membership in a Convert Class which will begin in the Center Library on Monday, Mar. 14, at 8 p.m. He urged the committee to spread the word of the facilities of the new Center to their non-Catholic friends and to invite them to Monday night instruction class-

German Prelate Thanks Kolping Unit for Food

Heartfelt thanks and his episcopal blessing have been received from His Excellency, the Most Rev. Wendelin Rauch, the new Archbishop of Freiburg, Germany, by members of the Catholic Kolpin Society, through the society's secretary, Edward Micek.

The local Kolping Society takng over the sponsorship of the Kolping Societies in the dioceses of Osnabrueck and Freiburg has been sending food and clothing.

The Archbishop in his letter declared that the food and clothing sent has brought great joy to people in the cities destroyed by war and from which ruins "the Kolping societies have started to rebuild their organizations."
