A CITATION FOR HEROISM

In New York, Police Commissioner Arthur Wallander, on behalf of the Mayor, presents engrossed citations of commendation to Frater Cornelius Biffar, S.O.C. of the Sacred Heart Seminary, Washington, and to his father, Dr. Harry M. Biffar, for their heroic service in rescuing a number of city firemen who had been blown off their launch when two explosions occurred on an anchored speed boat in the East river.

Courier Program on WHAM Features Hungarian Nun

A Catholic nun from Budapest, Hungary, will describe religious life behind the Iron Curtain and the welfare work of her community for the poor and homeless families of Hungary in a special interview with Father Richard Torney on the "Sunday Edition of the Courier Journal" at 12:30 p.m. this Sunday on Rochester's WHAM.

Unlike the American nuns, Sister Judith wears a black tailored street dress and a black hat with blue veil. She and her community of non-social workers serve the poor and homeless by personal visits to slums, hospitals and prisons.
