Boy Scout Aims Outlined to Nuns at Civic Center

... Scouting may be integrated into parish youth ... was outlined for more than 200 Catholic teaching ... at a meeting in Columbus Civic Center, Rochester, Tuesday, sponsored by Otetiana Council, Boy Scouts of America and the Rochester diocesan schools.

The spiritual force Scouting exerts in the life a growing boy was discussed with emphasis on the earning of the Ad Altare Dei award which calls for serving at the altar in addition to scout proficiency.

The Rev. Eugene H. McFarland, assistant pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church told the Sisters how they may assist the boys in earning the "Ad Altare Dei" badge.

A talk on "Boyology" was given by the Rev. Edward J. McAniff, assistant pastor of the Pro-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart. Joseph V. Moynihan, freshman athletic director at Aquinas Institute Annex discussed "Boy Leadership."

Joseph R. Klein, district scout executive and executive secretary of the Catholic Lay Committee on Scouting, spoke on principles of the Boy Scouts of America. Sister Mary Anita of the Missionary Servants of the Most Blessed Trinity described parish scouting activities.

Guests included Robert Link, chief scout commissioner, Otetiana Council and Frederick Wellington, scout executive, Otetiana Council.

Louis A. Langle, diocesan chairman of the lay committee on Scouting joined in welcoming the nuns to this first meeting of its kind as did Dr. Arnold J. Donovan, chairman of the lay committee in Otetiana Council. Martin Q. Moll was chairman of the meeting and presented Captain Henry H. Jensen of the Police Youth Bureau.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament closed the session.

Catholic Scout Aims Studied

To explore the possibility of promoting Scouting under Catholic auspices, two organizational Langwell, Elmira, on Feb. 15 and 16.

Kenneth E. Cook, executive secretary of the National Catholic Committee on Scouting addressed both the meeting of the clergy and laymen's groups. He was presented by L. V. Brown, a newly appointed field executive of the Sullivan Trail Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Organization of a Catholic Lay Committee on Scouting was outlined and recommendations from both meetings were forwarded to the Rev. Walter A. Fischer, Diocesan Director of Scouting under Catholic Auspices.

Among the priests present were the Reverend Fathers: William J. Naughton, Leo Lynch, James C. Lane, Nicholas Alletto, and John A. Murphy.

Laymen present included Samuel Josbeno, John Crowley, Louis Pirozzi, H. B. Connelly, G. W. Updyke, David Sheehan, William Bowers from Our Lady of Lourdes Parish; Clement Knuth, Gordon Creighton, Charles Thompson, Joseph Gawlas and Robert Skebey of St. Patrick's Parish and Francis X. Moser, Paul Flynn and Allie P. Quatrano from St. Mary's Parish.

St. Theresa Sodality Makes Spring Plans

Auburn — The monthly meeting of St. Theresa Sodality was held Wednesday night, March 2, in the Parish Hall of St. Hyacinth's Church.

Rev. Alphonse Rosak, the Sodality adviser, completed his organization of the girls' softball team which expects to be quite active this spring. Plans for the Easter holidays were discussed and Miss Frances Decowski, president, announced that the members will receive Easter Communion in a body on Sunday, Apr. 3 and breakfast will follow at the Osborne Hotel.

557 Five-Man Teams Sign Up for K. of C. National Bowling Tourney Set Apr. 2

Entries made in the National Knights of Columbus Bowling Tournament, Eastern Division, for the Rochester tourney opening April 2 will set a new record for the Division and will take on an international character.

Total five-man teams entered are 557, which is 55 more teams than at the tournament in Syracuse, National K. of C. Bowling Secretary Wilfred G. Albert, announced at his Hotel Seneca headquarters today.

A team from a council in Quebec has been entered which marks the first entry in this division and gives promise for more teams in future tournaments.

There will be 804 two-man teams rolling and in the singles 1,501 knights are entered. Secretary Albert reports that this will be 122 more doubles than last year and 220 more singles.

K. of C. Councils in Rochester diocese will be represented by 84 teams. Rochester has 60 five-man teams enrolled: Elmira, 7; Auburn, 8; Canandaigua, 2; Ithaca, 2; Waterloo, 2; Corning, 1; Dansville, 1; Hornell, 1; Palmyra, 1; Seneca Falls, 1.

Four eastern states will be represented at the tournament, which will be conducted Saturdays and Sundays from April 2 to May 15 at Buonomo's and Weber's Alleys. Bowlers are coming are coming from New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Massachusetts.

Buffalo Council will sent the largest delegation, 59 five-man teams. Philadelphia will have 29; and New York City 28 teams coming on special trains. The Capital City district around Albany will send 50 teams.

In the Central Division of the National K. of C. tournament which opens in Chicago on March 19, there are 1,025 five-man teams represented. Among these are 12 teams from Windsor, Ontario.

The first K. of C. National tournament was held in 1923 in Milwaukee. Albert recalls. First held in the east at Buffalo in 1940, entries became sufficiently large so that two divisions were formed in 1941. He predicts the Rochester tournament will set a new standard for K. of C. bowling and fellowship.

Grand Knight John J. Kinney, District Committeeman Rosso F. Natalie and District Deputy Francis T. Toomey are working with the national secretary.

Bowling League Scores

KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN — Arnold Eckert with a 246 single game pressed the leader, George Kraemer who had 247 in the Knights of St. John Bowling League, last week.

Mt. Carmel team is still setting the pace having taken three games from Pro-Cathedral keglers.

Mt. Carmel had high team average, three games, of 2803 with St. George's, 2705, second. High single game of 983 was rolled by Mt. Carmel. St. George's, 948, finished second high. Fischer with 628 was high three game individual scorer with Baum, 624, second high.

Say Rosary —Then Bowl

The practice of reciting the Rosary by members of Mt. Carmel Commandery No. 308, Knights of St. John Bowling League each Wednesday at 7:15 p.m. in the church on Woodward St., prior to bowling, is attracting wide attention.

Started on the suggestion of James D'Amico, a former officer Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union, by a handful, the Rosary recitation for the conversion of Russia, now attracts a crowd nearly of church capacity.

The forty men in the league have gradually been joined by other members of the parish.

Alumni At Mass In St. Aloysius

Auburn — All members of St. Aloysius Association were invited to be present Sunday morning, March 6, at the 10:30 Mass in St. Aloysius Church. The high Mass was said for all members, living and deceased, at the request of the organization.

Rev. Joseph Haffey, assistant pastor of St. Aloysius Church, was the celebrant and the Men's Choir sang. Rev. John B. Crowley, pastor, extended an invitation to former students and parishioners.
