Elmira Catholic High Lights

By KATHERINE CARSTATER

Pete Fennell's biography of Joyce Kilmer paved the way for "Prayer of a Soldier in France." Thomas Agan next gave Hilaire Belloc's biography and poem entitled "Sarah Byng" and the final scene found the entire assembly singing "Far Away Places" and "Cruising Down the River."

We're all waiting with open ears to hear the radio this Saturday morning - Elmira Station WELM at 10:45. Why? Seniors Rosemarie Cirulli, Mary Ann Milliken, and Juniors, Regina Bush, and Barbara Tomaszewski are putting in an appearance with Gorton's "Junior Round Table of the Air." Who can tell what but advise the discussion will contain? We hear that the juniors are diligently working on a program for their coming assembly. Could it be they're trying to outdo the seniors? We'll soon know... the second session of "Le Cercle Francals" got underway last Friday. Two "foreigners" from the French II class were included in the meeting. Those having the priority and special invitations were Mary Ann Lepa and Mary Hogan. The club amused itself by reading short French Plays. Socially Meetin'

Do you believe that the message of Fatima has failed? This was the topic of debate at this week's monthly Socially meeting and arguments pro and con flew thick and fast. The then approaching season of Lent was observed in the annual event of the Mardi Gras and gay dancers spread their frosting all around the floor... the drive for patriots is coming along but we

Man of the Week

Joseph Lynch, class of '34 has gone far since last leaving the surroundings of Catholic High. Being of the first graduating class of the school, Mr. Lynch was president of both his junior and senior classes, that famous group which made up a basketball team and captured the title necessary to enter the National Catholic Tournament in Chicago.

For the past 14 years Mr. Lynch has worked with the New York State Electric and Gas Corporation with both office and customer contacts, which included being senior clerk and assistant to the credit service manager. The years 1942-1946 found him in the service training in the middle west. After three months in North Africa, he went to India and China. These scenes saw him very active in Military Police work and criminal investigation, especially in Calcutta with British and Indian authorities. Upon his return home Mr. Lynch was awarded the Bronze Star and Presidential Unit Citation.

At present he is commander of the Catholic War Veterans and secretary of St. Mary's Holy Name Society.

Ithaca Speakers Bureau Started

Ithaca - The newly-formed Speakers' Bureau of Ithaca District, National Council of Catholic Women, met in Parish Hall Friday evening, March 4, under the direction of the Rev. John T. Walsh, moderator. Father Walsh spoke briefly on the technique of writing and presenting talks.

Members present who gave five-minute talks were: Mrs. Norbert H. Schickel, chairman, who spoke on "Confirmation"; Mrs. P. J. McManus, "Matrimony"; Mrs. T. J. O'Connell, "Penance"; Mrs. J. R. Bedell, "Sacraments in General".

The meeting was also attended by the president, Mrs. Arthur A. Cross. The group will meet again on Friday, March 18. Any N. C. W. member interested in joining the Speakers' Bureau is asked to call Mrs. Schickel, 8706.

Aquinas Club Enjoys Pre-Lenten Program

Cornell - Perry Bradley, acting as master of ceremonies at the recent pre-Lenten party of the Aquinas Club in the Catholic Daughters of America club rooms, introduced the following program: barbershop harmonies by Oliver Smith, Charles Parker, William Orcutt and Albert Cronin; vocal selections by Nancy Dowling and Charles Jones with Mrs. Marion Dalley as accompanist. Mr. Bradley directed group singing.

The committee in charge of the affair included Mrs. Dalley, Mrs. Edith Griffin, Miss Mary Lou Lawrence, Miss Madeline Stonger and Miss Mary O'Neill, Charles Parker, William Orcutt, Edward Fenning and Paul Bennett.
