Prelate's Talk On Marriage Set By Women's Club

A talk upon "Marriage Laws and Rules" by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Wilfred Craugh, rector of St. Bernard's Seminary will feature the regular monthly meeting of the Catholic Women's Club, Monday, March 21 at 8 p. m. in the clubhouse.

Mrs. Herbert F. Janick will preside at the business meeting. After the business session, a nominating committee will be chosen for selection of a state of officers and directors for the ensuing year.

Monsignor Craugh was born in Penn Yan and attended St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries. After his ordination he went to Rome to study. While in Rome he was awarded a degree of Master of Philosophy, the highest degree given there. Monsignor Craugh has been an official in the Diocesan Marriage Court for fifteen years. Before he was assigned as rector, he taught philosophy for twenty years at St. Bernard's Seminary. He was made Monsignor in 1947.

Mrs. Joseph Garen, program chairman has appointed Mrs. William J. Maloy in charge of the evening's program, assisted by the following members: Madamet Lewis J. Boyce, Robert F. McGraw, Daniel E. Macken, Joseph N. Murray, Paul Neubert, Raymond J. Reilly.

Also Miss Mary L. Allen, Miss Anna L. Breen, Miss Hilda M. Connor, Miss Margaret Connor, Miss Helen L. Costello, Miss Regina F. Kennedy, Miss Gertrude O'Hern, Miss Irene Sanders.

Clergy, Laity Laud Editor Tom O'Connor On His 25th Year as Catholic Journalist

By ARTHUR P. FARREN
 Described by Bishop James E. Kearney as "a great man because of his consecration to duty in a very simple way," Thomas O'Connor, widely known veteran news editor of the Catholic Courier-Journal, received scores of bouquets of praise at a testimonial dinner for him Monday night in Hotel Sheraton.

Bishop Kearney, who declared that "Tom O'Connor never lost the viewpoint of the other person," was joined by several priests of the diocese, as well as Catholic and secular press leaders and friends, in paying tribute to O'Connor on completion of his 25th year in Catholic press work.

NEARLY 200 persons, including representatives of Episcopate, the major lay organizations of the diocese with whom Tom O'Connor has been associated during the last quarter-century, were on hand to congratulate the genial, soft-spoken newspaperman, who was cited as "a courageous pioneer in the Catholic press field," and "a gallant and fruitful worker who has helped develop the Courier-Journal into one of the most alert, progressive, well-managed and efficiently edited Catholic papers in the nation."

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart, P. A. V. G., editor-in-chief of the paper, and the Rev. Leo C. Mooney, former editor, both told of the trying days of the

Benedictine To Join Oblates In Marking Saint's Feast

Rev. Gerald Farrell, O.S.B., of St. John's Abbey, Colledgeville, Minn., will address the members of the local Oblates of St. Benedict at a celebration in honor of the Feast of St. Benedict Monday, Mar. 21 at 7:15 p. m. in St. Andrew's Seminary.

Father Farrell will discuss the various aspects of the Benedictine Rule. Rev. Richard Quinn, director announces. There will be a compline and Benediction in chapel. Guests are invited.

The Secular Oblates of St. Benedict are Catholic men and women living outside the monastery, directing their spiritual life according to the St. Benedict Rule.

The spirit of the rule is the connecting link which forms the bond of union between the lay oblate and the Benedictine Abbey by which he is adopted as a member.

Supper Slated At Good Counsel
