Italian Priest To Visit Kin
 Coming from Italy to visit his brother in Rochester, the Rev. Canon Dominico Lombardo will arrive on the SS. Vulcania in New York, April 2, according to his brother, Guido Lombardo of 1522 Chili Ave.

Canon Lombardo toured 100 cities in his native country preaching for the Christian Democrats at the time when Communism threatened to control the country. He has written a book on the election in April of last year.

He is pastor of St. Rocco's Church in Pietramelara, province of Caserta and was ordained in 1922. His brother excepted for a short visit with him in 1947 has not seen him for 24 years prior to that time. As a child of 8 years, his parents brought Father Lombardo to America, otherwise he has not been in this country. He speaks only Italian and that fluently.

Her aunt, Mrs. Maude Schwartz of Rochester is credited with helping foster her vocation to the missionary life.

Another Rochester girl, Sister Noel Marie, nee Dorothy Duescher, daughter of Mrs. George Duescher, 90 Valley View Cres., was also present in the Maryknoll Sisters' habit at the same ceremony. Sister Marie is a graduate of Nazareth Academy.
