German Bishops Ask Parental Rights In Religious Education

By MAX JORDAN

Frankfurt — Under no circumstances will the Catholics of Germany renounce their demand that the rights of parents in matters of religious education be given full protection in the new German constitution now being drafted at Bonn. This was stated in a resolution adopted at a special meeting of the Hierarchy of Western Germany under the chairmanship of Cardinal Frings, Archbishop of Cologne. For the first time, the Bavarian Hierarchy, too, was represented.

ALL THE trials of the past years, the resolution adds, would be fruitless if the state were not deprived once and for all of the faculty of interfering with the freedom of conscience.

So far a majority made up of liberals, socialists and communists has successfully blocked all efforts of both Protestants and Catholics to have provisions incorporated in the constitutional draft whereby the rights of parents would be recognized as natural law valid beyond all governmental jurisdiction.

THE CHURCHES insist that true democracy is inconceivable unless freedom of conscience can be exercised by the citizens.

Film Teaches Deal and Dumb Kyoto. — (NC) — The world-famous film "King of Kings" was shown here recently in the Kyoto Prefectural School for the Deaf and Dumb. Thanks to the interest aroused for Christianity on that occasion some 30 of the students now attend Mass at St. Francis Church in Kyoto every Sunday and stay for a lesson in catechism taught to them in the sign language.

WILL AID WHITE RUSSIANS

Rev. Frederick Wilcock, S.J., and Rev. Andrei Ourousov, S.J., confer with two Russian Orthodox clergymen (Father Matvel, second from right and an Orthodox deacon, on the right) aboard the S.S. Hua Lien in Shanghai, before the boat sailed with its first consignment of White Russian refugees to a temporary haven in a former U. S. Navy Camp at Guluan on Samar, Philippine Islands. The International Refugee Council, Manila, arranged the evacuation of some 6,000 persons who fear that their lives would be in danger if Shanghai were taken by Soviet-dominated Communists. Honors For Dennis Day

New York. (NC) — Sarah Aligood, former Abbey Theater player who has become a familiar screen actress, and singer Dennis Day have been selected for the ninth annual St. Patrick's Day awards of the Catholic Film and Radio Guild.

Walz, assistant pastor of St. John the Baptist Church Elmira, was the guest speaker on the Lenten program of the organization in the Club rooms.

Father Walz gave an interesting history of the Papacy from its inception when Christ appointed Peter as the first Pope up to the present day.

The speaker was introduced by Miss Margaret Crane, co-chairman of the committee on arrangements. Miss Nancy Dowling, accompanied by Mrs. Marion Dailey, gave several vocal selections.

Mrs. Edith Griffin announced that at the regular business meeting, scheduled for April 11, the district deputy will make her official visit.

Religion in Schools Clarified in Egypt

(Cairo) — (CIP) — A recent government decree which was widely interpreted as compelling Christian schools to organize Muslim religious instruction for their Muslim students was clarified by the Egyptian Minister of Education, Abdel Razzak Pasha, in a statement which he made to a delegation of the Evangelical Community of Cairo, which visited him.

"I declare officially," he emphasized, "that the Ministry of Education does not compel Christian schools in any way to teach the Muslim religion to their students or to build Muslim oratories. On the other hand Christian schools may not under any circumstances compel Muslim students to attend prayers in a Christian church or to study the principles of the Christian religion."
