St. Francis of Assisi team defeated Holy Redeemer, St. Margaret Mary's, Holy Apostles, St. Francis Xavier's, St. Jerome's and Corpus Christi schools in the march to the title.

Threatened with defeat no less than four times, the Whitney St. boys had the extra ounce of punch necessary to win out in the closing rounds of the game.

After going through four rounds of the tournament without a defeat, Father Patrick Moffat's St. Francis Xavier team lost to the St. Francis of Assisi team by the small margin of 45 to 31. The Xavier team defeated Corpus Christi 32 to 30 for the latter's first defeat. The following day, Corpus Christi five came back strong to beat by two points, 39 to 37, the same team that had beaten them the day before by the same margin.

IN THE FINAL game Sunday afternoon between St. Francis of Assisi and Corpus Christi five, every thrill of big time basketball was experienced. After seeing throughout the game the score at the last minute of play was St. Francis 38, Corpus Christi 26.

With 50 seconds to go, Comfort of Corpus Christi was fouled and calmly sank his two foul shots to tie up the game at 38-38. St. Francis easily came back into the victory column when Ferrari sank a set shot from mid-court with less than 20 seconds to go, to win the game 40 to 38.

Throughout the tournament boys from St. Andrew's Seminary and Aquinas Institute officiated. They turned in splendid performances according to tournament officials. "Many thanks go to them from the various teams for their interest and work which was necessary to make the tournament a success," the tournament leaders stated.
